Notes for Johanna Jacobine Leedy (Lidi) (836):

Sources:

Tennessee Records: Bible Records and Marriage Bonds. The above is a DAR publication, originally published in 1933, updated in 1974 and available for viewing at Ancestry.com: Search > Birth, Marriage & Death > Tennessee Records: Bible Records and Marriage Bonds. A very detailed section on the Binkleys starts on page 128 titled "Joseph Shackelford Binkley Bible". At the time this data was extracted the Bible had passed to his son, Henry Clay Binkley, of Nashville. The records appear to start with "Frederick Binkley, father of Joseph S. Binkley, born Feb 15, 1774, died Sept 18, 1857..." On page 129 there is a lineage starting with "Frederick Binkley, son of John and Johanna Leedy Binkley...". So, based on that statement & the lineage that follows it, this Bible belonged to a descendant of Frederick Binkley, my ancestor Daniel Binkley's brother. Also on page 129 is a lovely little section titled "Historical Facts of the Binkley Family". It starts with Peter [the Moravian] and John Binkley immigrating to America in or about 1717. On page 130 is this statement: "John Binkley and two other sons and their families came to Tennessee in 1779." John Binkley is referring to Johannes/John, Daniel Binkley's father, which puts my ancestor, Daniel, at 2-years old for this move. Interestingly, though, all the online family trees I see for Johannes/John show almost all his children born in North Carolina, even those born after 1779. So something needs further investigation, obviously. On the same page (130) is a listing of marriages of Johannes/John's children. For Daniel the following is stated: "Daniel, who married Catherine Moser". Now I know this flies against the popular opinion that Daniel married Chatty/Catharina Woolf, but what can I say? There it is, in a DAR publication. It's also in the International Marriage Records database, but that entry may be based off of this DAR publication. So either he was married twice to women that had the same first name (certainly possible), or there is an error somewhere which needs to be found someday.

Leedy recalled in several letters written between the years of 1911 and 1913 what he knew of his father and grandfather's families. Another confirmation that John W. Leedy is the son of Jacob Leedy-I of York, PA is that Jacob V. B. Notes for Jacob Leedy (532):

Jacob Leedy II had a son Jacob G. Leedy, and all Federal Census (1870 & 1880) accounts show that Jacob G. Leedy was born in VA. No family tradition has survived which supports that any of the PA Leedys moved permanently into VA, however, the census shows as early as 1790, Jacob Leedy II may have resided in Rockingham Co., VA near his uncle Samuel Leedy I.

It is likely Jacob Leedy II resided in VA until about 1806, with the exception of probably a few return visits to York or Harrisburg, PA during this time. He probably returned home around 1800 to marry Polly Stumbaugh, of York Co., PA.

Once again, no family tradition has survived that accounts for the reason that Jacob Leedy II lived in VA, but he apparently had already permanently returned by 1807 when records indicate that a Jacob Leedy is taxed for 100 acres in Halifax Twp., Dauphin Co., PA and on 09-25-1809 Jacob Leedy of Halifax Twp., Yeoman, was taxed 5 shillings for items sold to his brother Samuel. The items listed were a 15 year-old white and black spotted horse, a bed and bedding, table, chairs, chest, and all his household and kitchen furniture.

Notes for Samuel Leedy (536):

According to the Adams Family History, by Rolland L. Adams, 1971, "Catharine Leedy, wife of Jacob C. Snyder, was the granddaughter of Samuel Leedy, a Perry County stonemason and farmer. He came from York Co., PA at some time prior to 04-02-1810. On that date he bought from Henry Livingston and wife Getraut a tract of land in Buffalo Twp., Cumberland Co., containing 116 acres and 120 perches, adjoining lands of Thomas Huling, James Parsons, Jacob Livingston and William Rogers. For this land he paid 437 pounds, 16 shillings and 3 pence. At this time he was living in the township where the property then was located - today it is in Watts Twp., Perry Co."

"Samuel died 23 years later, in 1833, leaving a will that was written on April 27th of the same year. He made no mention of a wife in this document, which probably means that she had preceded him in death," Perry Co., PA Courthouse, Will Book A. p. 500.

Notes for Joseph Binkley (7335):

[johnbi1.FTW]

[Bridget Rogier's 1997 printout says year of birth might be 1773 but shows it as 1788. I believe it to be 1773. If his parents went to Tennessee in 1799, it seems strange he would remain behind if he were in fact the youngest child. Also Joseph is not shown in the list of children baptized at the Bethania Moravian Church, which begins with Frederick, born 1774, the first child born after Johannes and Jacobina moved to North Carolina, and ends with Sarah, born 1786.

Information (source unknown) in Bridget Rogier's Peter Binkley, Born 1704, and His Descendants says that Joseph Binkley died in 1815 at the Battle of New Orleans. Although I have not been able to find a list of American deaths in the Battle, only a very few Americans died in the Battle; and it seems unlikely that Joseph was among them. The Mary Barry Freeman papers say that Joseph's nephew Jacob Childress died at the Battle of New Orleans, which also seems unlikely as the year of death given is 1812; but the Battle occurred in 1815. sbt]

Davidson Co, TN- Will Book 12, page 59, will of Joseph Binkley

Filed 30 Sept 1840. Names "the following lawful heirs & adopted heirs":

Geo. W. Binkley; Asa N. Binkley; Cynthia Lewis; Alanida Binkley; Joanna Felts; Catherine P. Carney; Martha Ann Gower. Written 2 Nov 1839. Executors were John Binkley and Asa N. Binkley.

It has not been determined if any of these named heirs are the natural children of Joseph Binkley or even if they are truly Binkley's. Obviously due to the language used in the will some or possibly all of them may not be his natural children. Some might be natural children and some adopted. Those adopted could be children of a Binkley relative and be Binkley's by birth even if not Joseph's children.

One of the heirs of Joseph listed in his will as Martha Ann Gower, is shown in the chart as marrying a Gower first and then Moses Cowgill in 1836. When Joseph wrote his will in 1839 Martha was still a Gower and could not have married Cowgill in 1836. The marriage for Martha Ann to Gower has not been located. Martha who married Moses Cowgill was a daughter of Daniel Binkley.

Another heir, Cynthia Binkley married Samuel Small in 1818 and later married Washington Lewis in 1827.

Lot # 11-drawn by Martha Binkley, 12 acres, on Stones River.

There is only one Isaac that I can find in the area and he is the son of Daniel. I believe placing Isaac as a son of George is based purely on tradition.

Daniel Binkley lived in Robertson Co., until shortly before his death when he purchased land on the Stones River near his brother Frederick. Davidson County Deed Book Q, p. 179. This was July of 1824. The sale of inventory of Daniel Binkley is recorded in Will Book 8, p. 460, stating the sale was held on Feb. 5th 1825.

Daniel's widow Catherine, and his sons Isaac and William are living near Frederick Binkley in the Stones River area in 1830. In 1840 Isaac and Benjamin F. (I believe this is Franklin Binkley named in the division above) are in the Stones River area.

Catherine widow of Daniel married Edward Elam, 5 May 1831. The marriage was performed by G. w. Charlton, who also administered the estate of Daniel. By 1850 Isaac has sold his land in the Stones River area of Davidson Co., TN and moved to Wright Co., MO. Catherine Moser Binkley Elam died in Davidson Co., ca 1839."

Shown as Jake Binkley in a list of those living in the vicinity of Brown's Ford, Robertson County, Tennessee in Robertson County, Tennessee, by Yolanda G. Reid and Rick S. Gregory.

From Goodspeed's History of Tennessee, originally published by Goodspeed Publishing Co., Nashville, 1886, republished by Southern Historical Press, Easley, South Carolina, 1979, p. 830-831:

In 1788 Samuel Crockett built a blockhouse or fort on the place where his son, Capt. M. D. Crockett, now lives. This served as a defense in times of danger for all that neighborhood. The Indians finally became so troublesome that the women and children were sent away to the stronger forts, while the men remained to look after the crops. With all the precautions taken by the community, a young lady, a daughter of Thomas Norris, was killed by the Indians, and Patrick Martin was wounded. Besides those mentioned the following persons settled in this vicinity and to the southwest of it: Benjamin Nail, Joseph Martin, Thomas Martin, Henry Frey, George Williams, George Murphy, Thomas Jamison, Julius Justice, James and Hardy Bryant and Thomas Holmes...

At the beginning of the present century [nineteenth], a colony of Germans from North Carolina, among whom were the Fishers, Binkleys, Stoltzes, Fykes, Gigers, Kigers, Clinards and some of the Freys, came to the county [Robertson] and settled on Carr's Creek and vicinity. After the removal of the Indians from this part of the State, the settlement went on very rapidly, and in 1812 there were 852 able-bodied men in the county divided into fifteen militia companies.

Notes received from Debie Cox (Dock1952@aol.com):

"Jacob lived on Carr's Creek in Robertson Co., TN. He purchased some of his father's land on Carr's Creek from the heirs as well as several other tracts. From the division of the land of John Binkley he later purchased:

lot #5 from Henry Binkley

lot #10 from George Binkley lot #2 from Joseph Childress, did not purchase but held mortgage.

He sold lot #2 to Peter Frey, this may have been the lot that Jacob received as his part in the land division.

Jacob Binkley's will was written 14 March 1844 and files [sic] Oct. 1846, Robertson Co., TN Will Book 13:28. Robertson County, TN Loose Chancery Court Papers, #623, #89, #102, #193, #316."

Sources:

Wythe Co., VA Courthouse Marriage Records Book 1, p.51, dated 04-11-1815, surety bond, Peter Clemens to marry Sally Leedy.

Discrepancy with AFN ... Tennessee Tombstone Records of Blount County, copied under Work's Progress Administration, June 1938, Tennessee State Library; lists Mary W. as the wife of Peter Clemens (more investigation needs to be done on this).

Blount Co., TN Cemetery Records, compiled by Edith B. Little, Tennessee State Library, 1981, p. 32; seems to calaborate that Peter Clemons wife was Mary instead of Sarah. Possibly Sarah was his first wife!

Notes for John Leedy (2819):

Family traditions ...

He was appropriately know even in his days as "Big John Leedy." Traditions say that he stood 6' 1" tall and weighed at least 350 lbs., even possibly as much as 450 lbs.

LEEDY, JOHN (deceased). The progenitor of the Leedy family now in the United States came from Switzerland, and settled in Maryland; his name was Abraham Leedy, and there were five children in his family ; one son, named Abraham, after his parent, is the father of the Leedys residing in Ohio. John, the subject of our sketch, was born in Maryland Sept. 10, 1779, and, when a few years old, his father moved to Bedford Co., Penn., and settled in Morrison's Cove; he was brought up a farmer, but early learned the art of distilling. On March 4, 1806, he was married to Elizabeth Keith, who was born near Coffey Run, Penn., and she was then 17 years old; her father's name was Lewis Keith, and her mother's Mary Saltsman. In 1810, Mr. Leedy visited Richland Co., and, in 1811, moved, landing upon Sec. 35 June 6 ; his wagon was used as a residence until a log cabin was erected ; in 1812, he set up a still and commenced the manufacture of spirits, which was the first one put in operation in the county. The excitement caused by the Zimmer tragedy prompted him to leave his habitation in 1812, and he removed to the block-house at Fredericktown, where he remained about nine days. The forest was rapidly cleared away around his dwelling, and the ground devoted to agriculture ; the still, which he operated in connection, proved a valuable auxiliary, as the grain could be converted into liquor, which met with a ready sale to the Indians ; he remained upon the farm until 1836, when he left it and opened a hotel in Bellville, occupying the building in which the Exchange Bank is quartered ; here he remained about six years, and then returned to his farm, and died Sept. 6, 1851. He owned 640 acres of land; was one of the first Trustees of Jefferson when it embraced three townships; bold and resolute, knowing no fear, and, in his years of age, weighed 360 pounds. His children are Lewis, Catharine, Susan, Mary, Abraham, Samuel, Margaret, Rosan, John, Sarah and David ; they all grew up and were married, except David, who died young ; the daughters all moved West after marriage, with the exception of Catharine, who married Samuel Garber, and died in Jefferson Township. Mother Leedy died in Indiana at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Spayd, and was interred with the remains of her husband near Ankneytown, Ohio.

Notes for Abraham Leedy (1182):

"Pioneer" Abraham Leedy (Jr.) travelled bringing his young family along for 3 weeks in the Fall of 1829, moving from Bedford Co., PA, to Ankenytown, Knox Co., OH ... passing through Pittsburgh along the way, Rev. Isaac A. Leedy, his son, recalled that at Pittsburgh the young family took in a monkey show.

The biography of Abraham Leedy given at the 1st Leedy Reunion on 08-18-1897 says that "Abraham Leedy was born in Bedford Co., PA, 04-15-1787, where he remained until 1829. He was reared on a farm and was known as a first-class farmer and teamster, devoting much of his time as a teamster."

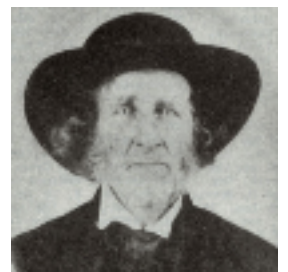

"In the Fall of 1829, the wife and nine of the children migrated to Knox Co., OH, and purchased a large tract of land at Ankenytown, OH. They cleared the land which they occupied very successfully, saving enough from the proceeds to buy several additional farms. They were liberal and charitable feeding and clothing the needy, being firm in the belief that he that giveth to the poor 'Lendeth to the Lord.'"

"He and his wife were members of the Brethren Church and had the pleasure of seeing all their children start out to battle with life responsibilities for themselves, and all but two were united with the Brethren Church. Three sons were chosen to the ministry."

When father Leedy was nearing the close of his pilgrimage with bright prospects in view of that 'Rest that remaineth for the people of God,' he desired to be relieved of his earthly possessions and requested to have all of his children called to his home and fireside. This home was where they were reared and spent their happiest days and here they were to receive their father's possessions. The meeting was a grand success and the estate amounting to 36,000 acres was divided among the children without them paying one cent for attorney fees or for the land. This transaction occurred in the Fall of 1859, and on the eighth day of March, 1860, he quietly passed away with a smile on his lips from a hope below to a home above."

His biography which was read at the Leedy reunion in 1897 mentions that the "total number of his grandchildren, 99, 51 sons and 48 daughters; 199 great-grandchildren, 100 sons and 99 daughters; 20 g-g-grandchildren; 12 sons and 8 daughters. Total number of descendants (in 1897), 316."

Notes for Daniel Leedy (6578):

LEEDY, Daniel, deceased, was born in York County, PA. in 1819. He removed to Chambersburg, PA, where he learned the trade of wagon maker. He came to Harrisburg in 1840, and was for a time employed by John Dimmick, who was engaged in manufacturing the "Woodcock Plough." He subsequently purchased the business and continued it until 1851 or 1852, at which date he relinquished the enterprise and established a shoe business on Market street, near the present entrance to the Pennsylvania railroad station, in which he was engaged until the fall of 1861, when he removed to a farm in Franklin County.

In 1863 he returned to Harrisburg and for a year and a half was engaged in the shoe business at the corner of Fourth and Market Streets, after which he removed his store to the new building he had erected on the corner of 5th and Market and continued there until he retired from business in 1870. His death occurred in 1886.

Mr. Leedy was one of the stockholders in the 1st Harrisburg Passenger Railway Company. He was somewhat active in political matters in connection with the Republican party, having served as a member of the city council from the 9th Ward. His church membership was formerly with the Locust Street Methodist Episcopal church, but later he joined the Ridge Avenue Church, and was the chorister for some years.

Mr. Leedy was married to Miss Louisa Peyton, daughter of Chambers Peyton, of Chambersburg, who survives him. They reared three sons and three daughters: William, shoe dealer, deceased; Margaret, Mrs. J. H. DeHaven, of Harrisburg; John W.; Laura, Mrs. A. C. Irvin, Washington, D. C.; Mary L., Mrs. W. L. Calderwood, Philadelphia; Daniel, Jr., deceased, a private in the United States Army, afterwards in the shoe business in Harrisburg.

John W. Leedy was born November 23, 1844, and received his education in the public schools. He was employed in his father's store until his retirement, in 1870, when he succeeded to the business, which he conducted for eighteen years. In 1888 he gave up the shoe business and embarked in the manufacturing of building and paving brick, in which enterprise he has been successfully engaged since that time, supplying the home demand and making large shipments to other towns.

Mr. Leedy is not active in politics, but his sentiments are in agreement with the Republican party. He was married in 1866 to Miss Clara May, of Juniata County, who died in 1890. Their children are: Alda, Fannie, Louisa, Frank, and Mary. The family are members of the Ridge Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, in which Mr. Leedy holds the office of president of the board of trustees.

Notes for Jacob H Leedy (6298):

Jacob Leedy reportedly died at 3:30 a.m. on 03-17-1904.

In 1851, he was one of the 1st Tobacco Manufactures to recognize and deal with a union of workers. A staunch American patriot, he with 3 eldest sons enlisted in Purnell Legion of Union forces and drum major for 3 years at beginning of Civil War.

After hostilities ended, organized a Leedy Drum Corps in the Union Veteran Legion, consisting of 18 players. For 2 generations in Youngstown the Corps was feature of parades and celebrations. Jacob was drum major and fifer and 5 sons drummers. He played fife in parades for both Pres W.H. Harrison and his grandson Pres. Benjamin Harrison, and in funeral precession of Pres James A Garfield.

Following the after Battle of Gettysburg, the Leedy couple were among the 1st persons to enter the stricken city, Mrs. Leedy being concerned for welfare of her parents and brothers, and sisters. Through the help of a friend who was a railroad official, they were brought through the lines aboard a railroad box car carrying food and provisions from Baltimore, MD.

Neighbors Disliked Union Sympathies ...

Upon returning, they found neighbors angered over their Union sympathies and about 1868 moved to Bryan, Williams Co., OH. Had cigar making shop there, 1870. A decade later the couple followed their son, Charles, in moving to Youngstown, OH where Jacob Leedy & Sons, tobacconists, flourished until Jacob's ret, as the nation's oldest manufacture, tobacconist.

Catherine was educated at a female seminary in Carlisle, PA. She possessed musical talent like her sister, a concert pianist, and had a voice of quality. She sang for years as a soloist in the Old England Lutherine Church of Baltimore. Their 60th anniversary at Pioneer Pavilion in Mill Creek Park, Youngstown, was attended by 80 relatives and friends.

(228) "Uncle Issac" Leedy of OH was impressed when he read her obit. in the Leedy Chronicle in 1906. " I never knew, no never even heard, of that noble, even heard, of that noble, useful, pious, consecrated and saintly mother, Mrs. Catherine Leedy of Youngstown until I saw her picture... This picture and biography is worth more to me than the price of the Chronicle of a lifetime." Hew regretted that she had never been honored at an OH Leedy Reunion.

Notes for William Binkley (12795):

CONFEDERATE VETERANS OF WRIGHT COUNTY, MISSOURI

Compiled/Copyrighted by Robert D. Caudle; listed William Binkley Age 58 and born in Tenn. according to the 1860 census for Wright Co. Mo. He is listed as having paid taxes in Wright Co. in 1861. William was a Confederate soldier during the war and was killed by Federals just West of the courthouse

Peter Binkley, Born 1704, and His Descendants, compiled by Bridget McCartney Rogier, shows this William as the son of [Johann] George Binkley and Nellie Earthman. However, one of the few documents that exist on George is his 1805 marriage to Nellie in Davidson County, Tennessee. William was born before this date. As he went to Wright County, Missouri, as did Isaac Binkley, I believe that this William is the same William who was the son of Daniel sbt

The above printout cites the following records:

Notes for Salinda Leedy (766):

Mystery ...

Why did Salinda Leedy have 2 children recorded in the census with the last name as Leedy instead of Patterson? Tombstone inscriptions and subsequent records further conclude this. This has been a mystery ... or at least a mystery until one looks at the overall picture. Records clearly indicate that she was either married to or a consort of William T. Patterson, and they had 2 children together.

Without having found any record on file of a divorce, we know that William Patterson remarries in 1846 to a Nancy (?) even though Salinda Leedy was still living. We know that William Patterson and his 2nd wife Nancy marry in Tazewell Co., VA 06-02-1846; move to Vermillion Co., IL and have 6 children born to them (between the years 1847-1861).

The 2 children (Mary Jane Leedy and Thomas Rush F. Leedy) born to William Patterson and Salinda Leedy previously to Nancy Patterson's children ... between the years 1840 and 1845 ... appear in all the federal census records from 1850 forward retaining the last name Leedy ... not Patterson?

Did William Patterson decide to move to Vermillion Co., IL and Salinda Leedy decide to remain in Tazewell Co., VA.? Did William Patterson decide to go without Salinda, find a new wife (Nancy) and they moved to IL? On this premise the mystery why the 2 children of Salinda were henceforth recorded as Leedy, and Salinda's last name was recorded as Leedy in the 1850 Federal Census might be solved.

JACOB LEEDY

Jacob Leedy was born in Augusta County, Va., March 14, 1822. In 1833, he removed with his parents to Preble County, Ohio, where he grew to manhood. January 19, 1845, he was united in marriage with Miss Sarah Fall, who was born in Preble County, Ohio, September 12, 1822. In September, 1846, he removed with his wife to Wabash County, Ind., where he continued to reside for a term of two years. At the end of that time, he came to Huntington County and located at the old Indian village in Polk Township, moving to a cabin formerly occupied by an Indian family. It was a little hut, about twelve feet square, and was his home for about two weeks. At the end of that period, he had completed a more commodious cabin, and for eleven years thereafter, was engaged in clearing and improving his farm. In 1859, in company with his nephew, S. M. Leedy, he started for a visit to the familiar places of his native State. After several days spent in Philadelphia, he resumed his journey toward the State of Virginia, via Baltimore, Washington and Harper's Ferry. Arriving at the latter place, he found the people in the wildest state of excitement, which was occasioned by the execution of the John Brown; and to guard against a forcible attempt to release the prisoner, 3,000 militia were called out by Gov. Wise. The scene, with its surroundings, made an impression upon Mr. Leedy's mind which can never be effaced. On the following day, he reached his destination, and on the next day thereafter, attended a public auction. His free spirit revolted at such inhumanity, and his remarks on the subject were considered quite inappropriate by those who heard. He was admonished by a relative to keep silent, as he incurred the danger of arrest, on the ground of being an Abolitionist. He left the scene, and remained with his relatives but a few days, glad to return once more to "free soil."

He has since continued to follow the occupation of farming, and in this pursuit has met with well-deserved success. He has been prominently associated with many of the public improvements of the county, and has contributed liberally, of both time and means, for the furtherance of such enterprises. Enumerated in 1850 Federal Census for Union Twp., Miami Co., IN; dated 09-18-1850 lists Abraham Leedy (age 41) and family; real estate valued at $3,000.

From History of Miami County, Indiana: From the earliest time to the present; page 783-787;

Previous to the year 1835 the territory embraced within the present limits of Union Township knew not the presence of white men. In that year, however, four adventurous men, lured by the prospects of cheap homes in the Tiew country, made their appearance and selected their respective claims, preparatory to beginning life in the wilderness. These were William Cannon, who located on Wesaw Creek, near the central part of the township; Joseph Thornburg, on what is now the Fisher farm; John Plaster, near the central part of the township, where his widow still lives, and Joseph Cox, a transient settler, who made a few improvements on the land now belonging to William Leedy. These men all came in the summer of 1835, and until October of that year were the sole white residents of what is now Union Township. Early in the fall of '35 Abraham Leedy moved to the new country and located the farm where John Keplinger now lives. He was a man of some prominence, and in an early day was elected to the office of Justice of the Peace. John Zook became a resident about the same time as Leedy, and settled where his widow now lives, near the present site of Deedsville. The above settlers, from the most reliable information, appear to have been the only residents of Union prior to 1836. In the latter year several settlers arrived, prominent among whom was Martin Hoover, who located in the northern part of the township, where he lived until within the first few years, when he moved to the town of Denver, his present home. Contemporary with Mr. Hoover were John R. Wright, Christian Krider, John F. Sanders and Hugh A. B. People, all of whom made permanent improvements and became prominent citizens.

Notes about the Cemetery:

A Former & completely abandoned Burial-Ground [later done away with] in N.E. WASHINGTON Township, CASS County, INDIANA, in S.W.1/4 of S.W.1/4 of Sec. 3, T 26 N., R.2E., 2nd IN P.M.

Back in the days before the consolidation of little one-room schools, Washington Townships School House Number One was situated in the extreme S.W. corner of Sec.3 [slightly less than 1mile W.] of Anoka ["or Herman City"]. About 330 yards [60 rods] N.E. of this little school house & on the old DANIEL LEEDY farm, there was [according to reliable former county historians] a small cemetery in which 7 or 8 members of the LEEDY family were buried. About the beginning of the 20th century, all of them are to reportedly have been carefully disinterred & removed to a much larger & more permanent cemetery in the nearby Village of Anoka . Since it's possible that some early family member was interred here without a marker or record I make this report though I have no reason to believe that anyone remains interred in this cemetery. I wouldn't even make this report except that I continue to receive phone calls, letters & postcards in addition to other methods of communication admonishing us not to forget or overlook this former burying place.

Daniel Leedy seems to have been a highly respected member of the Church of the Brethren & a highly esteemed citizen. Born in PA, he arrived in IN before 1854. His wife, Miss Elizabeth Nelson [daughter] of Wm. & Mary A. [Butler] Nelson who was born near Cincinnati , OH on 10-9-1824.

They followed the tide of settlement Northwestward first to Rush Co., IN & than after the Civil War settling in Cass Co.

These names & dates are perhaps worth recording here though the present writer,

R. B. Whitsett, Jr. has no actual proof that any of these persons were ever buried here even temporarily. It is also highly unlikely that any of them are still buried here.

Notes for Aaron Abraham Leedy (1184):

AARON A. LEEDY

Born April 21, 1832, in Knox County, OH to Abraham Leedy and Elizabeth Zook. Abraham moved his family from Morrison's Cove, PA in September 1829 and settled near Ankenytown, OH, near where his older brother, "Big John" Leedy, had settled in 1811.

As a young man, Aaron worked as a carpenter and helped build the Brethren Church in Ankenytown. He became a skilled mechanic who operated sawmills, threshing machines, and other farm equipment. He married Elizabeth Ann Garber, his first cousin, once removed, on March 13, 1856. They first lived on her father's farm, then occupied several farms in the area until purchasing part of the original "Big John" Leedy land from Samuel Garber in 1863.

He built a large brick home about 1870 directly over a spring, which served as a cool pantry. He provided running water from a large holding tank in the attic and installed a copper bathtub in the master bedroom.

Aaron was a general farmer growing corn, oats, and wheat. He raised cattle, hogs, sheep, chicken, and turkeys; and sold meat, butter, eggs, hides, wool, and maple syrup. In his daily journal he detailed temperature, wind direction and speed, precipitation and agricultural production (e.g., pounds of butter, eggs, gallons of maple syrup). He was a charter member of the Jefferson Grange, serving as first Master. He was president of the Patrons Mutual Relief Association for many years. He was a Universalist and helped erect that church's Bellville, OH building. A Prohibitionist, he proudly voted a "clean prohibition ticket" in 1887.

Music was important in his life. He led a Grange band consisting of neighbors and family members. He taught singing and loved singing at home with friends, at Grange meetings, and church events. Aaron recorded in his journal in 1887, 22 band practices, 12 band appearances, and "went to singing" on 26 occasions. He had charge of music at the first Leedy Reunion on September 23, 1896, and served as Reunion President 1898-1900. Aaron and Elizabeth celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on March 13, 1906, at their home.

Aaron died on October 28, 1907, and is buried at Owl Creek Cemetery, Knox County, OH. "He will be remembered best for his unfailing humor, the 'glad hand' and hearty greeting" (The Leedy Chronicle October 1907). Children are listed under Elizabeth Ann Garber.

AARON LEEDY

Aaron Leedy was one of the honored pioneers of Richland county, Ohio, a man respected and honored wherever known and most of all where he was best known. He was born April 21, 1832, and was the youngest son of Abraham and Elizabeth (Zook) Leedy. His life record covered seventy-five years, six months and seven days, and he passed away October 28, 1907. His early youth was spent upon a farm near Ankenytown, Ohio, and throughout the greater part of his life he successfully followed the occupation of farming, although to some extent, especially early in his life, he worked at the carpenter's trade.

On the 13th of March, 1856, Mr. Leedy was married to Elizabeth Garber and for about a year they lived upon her father's farm, after which they removed to a farm in Berlin township, Knox county, Ohio. In 1860 they took up their abode about three miles east of Bellville, and in 1863 in company with his brother-in-law, David L. Garber, Aaron Leedy purchased a farm that had formerly been the property of his father-in-law, Samuel Garber. While he made the tilling of the soil his chief life work he possessed much natural mechanical ability and could do almost anything with tools. He worked at the carpenter's trade, operated a water mill and afterward a steam sawmill, also operated threshing machines and did other work along mechanical lines. He led a busy and useful life and he won a fair measure of success, so that for many years he was enabled not only to enjoy the necessities but also the comforts of life.

Unto Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Leedy there were born six sons and three daughters: Byron, born March 11, 1857; Elmina, who was born June, 28, 1859, and died in 1866 at the age of seven years; Eugene R., born February 16, 1861; Clement, born July 5, 1863; Albert, February 7, 1867; Bertha, March 30, 1871; Alfred, June 2, 1873; and Herbert; and Maude. All are now married with the exception of Bertha and Herbert.

In 1866 Mr. Leedy united with the Universalist church of Bellville and remained one of its faithful and helpful members throughout the remainder of his life. He contributed liberally to its support and he spent much of two years as the active member of the building committee while erecting the house of worship at Bellville. He also was a charter member of Jefferson Grange and served as its first master following its organization, October 9, 1873, while later at different times he again served as master. His greatest interest aside from his business and his church was in the Grange. He was president of the Patrons Mutual Relief Association from June 4, 1844, until January 12, 1899. Very fond of music, he taught singing schools in the early days and was an active member of the Grange Band for years. He was always interested in young people and "the boys" were ever welcome at his home. They would frequently gather there in the evenings and he would sit and sing with them for several hours at a time. While he was never a great talker, he was a most hospitable man and his wife shared with him in extending the hospitality of their home to their relatives and many friends. He believed in the religion of living rather than of creed and he earnestly put forth effort to encourage the good that he believed was in every individual.

His life was fraught with many good deeds and characterized by kindly purposes and honorable motives. He passed the Psalmist's allotted span of three score years and ten and at his death left the memory of an upright life and a nable example which is well worthy of emulation.

Notes for Elizabeth Leedy (6483):

Citation sources:

She is said to have been of "medium height, stoutly built, had auburn hair, blue eyes and ruddy complexion." Her son Samuel Leedy McDaniel said that his mother "was a woman of remarkable patience although often disturbed in her household duties, annoyed and vexed yet I cannot remember of her ever being downright angry." She was "always quite, patient and cheerful, we all thought when she was gone that we had lost our best friend, and the best of mothers."

Rev. Roy Benton Leedy files, Lyme Historic Village.

Samuel Leedy McDaniel also mentions that "she could read and write the English language although in her earliest years the German language was used in the family (Pennsylvania Dutch)."

JOHN H. BINKLEY CLAIMED BY DEATH

Father of Sheriff Binkley, Was 92-Years Old

The death of John Henry Binkley, a prominent citizen of the Mt. Zion neighborhood in the 13th civil district, which occurred Tuesday caused sincere regret not only by his family and in his immediate neighborhood but throughout the entire county.

Funeral services were held at Mt. Zion church Wednesday afternoon, by the Rev. John L. Chenault.

Mr. Binkley was born February the 6th, 1836, and died January the 24th 1928, he, therefore, had passed his ninety-first milestone and only lacked 13 days of reaching his ninety-second milestone at the time of his death.

MARTIN V. FELTS.

Farmer.

The subject of this sketch is the son of Hardy Felts and Joanna Binkley. Both were natives of North Carolina and came to Tennessee when children. Martin Felts was born February 6, 1837, in Tennessee. His mother died when he was a lad of seven years. At the age of sixteen, he came with his father to Marion, where his father died. Mr. Felts was reared on a farm and has followed that occupation all his life. After the death of his father he lived for two years with Washington Binkley until the latter's death, when he took charge of the farm and managed it on shares for four years, until June 1, 1863, when he married Miss Rebecca Lucky, the daughter of J. M. Lucky, of Tennessee. Mrs. Felts is still living and almost as active as when first married, and scarcely a gray hair in her head. They have two sons, whose portraits appear in this volume. Their only daughter, Mrs. Condace Grant, died in 1901. Soon after their marriage Mr. and

Mrs. Felts moved on the Benton road, five miles north of Marion, on the O'Daniel farm, and bought from Lewis Parks one hundred and ten acres of land which they have continued to cultivate until the present time, a period of forty years. The picture of the old homestead which adorns these pages, justifies his choice of a locality as it shows what nature will do for man when directed by intelligence and industry. The old home has been now for some time in the hands of renters, and to some extent shows the usual marks of the owner's absence. He has quit farming now and has bought and built a fine cottage in Marion, where he expects to spend his remaining days. Mr. Felts has always given a great deal of attention to fruit raising, and is widely known as the best apple man in Southern Illinois. He is called the apple king of Williamson County. He planted and owns twenty acres of the best orchard in the county. They are largely Ben Davis and Wine-sap trees, and a single crop from two and one-half acres, numbering one hundred thirty trees, brought him on the first of September, 1899, $5011.00. He sold to Newhall Sons, of Chicago, who took them from the trees. The trees were fourteen years old, and yielded from four to six barrels each. Mr. Felts has been a Master Mason

i-i Marion for forty-one years. He was also a member of the Christian Church and a Deacon.

Notes for John Albert Strong (12137):

Obituary for John Strong, 1831-1915

June 19, 1915- Mansfield Mirror Pioneer Resident Dead

In the passing away Monday of John Strong Wright county lost one of her pioneers—a citizen who was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him, and his circle of acquaintances was a large one.

John Strong was born September 17, 1831 in Roane county, Tenn. and died May 30, 1915, at the home of his son, Isaac Strong near Mansfield, aged 83 years, 8 months and 17 days.

When a very small boy he came to Missouri. When he was 9 years old his parents died, and ten years later he came to Wright county, where an older brother had previously located.

December 31, 1850, he married Miss Winnie Rogers, to which union were born 16 children, 8 of whom survive: Isaac Strong, of Mansfield; Rev. James Strong, of Helena, Okla; Albert Strong, Mrs. Louisa Smith and Mrs. Frances Thomas, of Hutchinson, Kansas; Mrs. Martha Buffalo of Nickerson, Kansas; Mrs. Dora Young of Shantee, Okla.; and Mrs. Sallie Young, of Paragould, Ark.

For forty years Mr. Strong resided on a farm north of Hartville. Upon the death of his wife in 1898 he sold his farm, and has since that time resided with his children.

In 1858 he was converted and became a member of the M. E. church, of which he remained until called to the church triumphant.

Rev. L. W. Hensley conducted the funeral services from the Free Will Baptist church at Pleasant Hill cemetery.

Only three of his children Isaac and Rev. James Strong and Mrs. Dora Young were present at the funeral, the others being unable to attend on account of the high water prevailing between their homes and Mansfield.

Mr. Strong was one of those early pioneers who did so much in the earlier days to bring our country to its present high state of advancement. He was a hard worker and a great hunter, but never neglected the farm work to hunt. In the three years following the close of the civil war he killed over 300 deer, besides wild turkeys and other game galore. Although not a large man, physically, it is related that on one occasion when hunting he killed two deer and started homeward carrying them a considerable distance. Being closely pursued by wolves he placed one of the deer in a tree beyond the reach of the wolves, and carried the other home. He returned the next day and got the one left behind. Probably Had Confederate Sympathies

No doubt he was the Harv Leedy, then a blacksmith, who is featured in a slim, well-illustrated history of the Battle of Kingsport, TN, 13 Dec, 1864, written by Tom Ramsey. More than 4,000 Yankees were bearing down on 300 Rebels, who were digging in on a cedar bluff at the forks of the Holston R. Aware the night before that a battle was imminent, Harv locked up his shop on the Holston N of the bluff, saddled his horse and dashed for the village to spread the news. Seems he still had Confederate sympathies. Mary (Hoffman) Nelms, who had heard of the action 1st hand, told the tale. Leedy was remembered fording the river on his way home. When he reached Kingsport, "water clinging to his horse's flanks had already turned to chunks of ice." Mary's mother next day had stood on the portico of their house and watched the shooting, but the Rebels, having had more swigs of Kingsport moonshine than needed for courage, fled in disorder, suffering 18 dead and losing 84 prisoners.

Notes for Elias Lambert (34331):

Private in Co. H or K, 63rd Virginia Infantry, C.S.A. Reported by his granddaughter Bess Cox to be a Fife Major and moved to Elliott County after the Civil War.

Listed in the 1869 tax records for Elliott Co., Kentucky, in an area formerly in Carter County.

His death certificate records Eli Lambert, age 89 years 6 months 4 days, born 16 Oct 1836 in With (Wythe) Co. Va, died 20 March 1926 in Wagner, Rowan Co., Ky, married, father Henry Lambert, mother's maiden name Emla Leedy, both born in Virginia, cause of death influenza, informant Dock Lambert, Crix, Ky, burial in Cox Cemetery.

According to Juanita M. Turner of Troy, MI, she was told that during the Civil War Eli Lambert was captured by Union Forces in TN and he was forced to sign a document which he promised not to fight again. He apparently was considered a deserter after signing the document.

Eli Lambert story - Source; Elliott County's Union Civil War Veterans in 1890 By John A. Stegall - Eli Lambert: Sol. (Conf.) This was the only information given in the 1890 Military Census. He was a resident of the Moccasin Precinct at the time.

A Lambert descendent stated recently the Eli was a major in the Drum and Fife Corps during the Civil War.

The source quoted above also indicates that Eli Lambert was born Sept 16, 1836, possibly in Wythe Co, VA. He was a son of Henry and Emaline Leedy Lambert. (Henry traces to Johann Heinrich Lambert and his wife, Mary Magdalene Daude, natives of Otterburg, Germany).

Around 1860, Eli Lambert and Elvina Catron were married in VA. Before they moved from VA, they had the following children: Ephraim (1860), William (1861), James (1863), Frances Ann (1867) and Sarah (1870).

It is said that the Lambert family left VA in early 1870, traveled by wagon down the Big Sandy Valley, and eventually settled in Elliott Co. When the Elliott Co census was taken in June of 1870, the Eli Lambert family was already established in the Moccasin area. Eli stated that he was 33 years of age and born in VA. Elvina was 28, and likewise, born in VA. Their children named in this census report were: William, 9; James, 7; Ephraim, 5; Frances, 2; and Sarah, 2 months. It was indicated that all of these children were born in VA.

Some of the Lambert descendants say the date of Elvina's death is unknown. Since she is not named in the 1880 census, she apparently died during the 1870s.

When the 1880 Elliott Co census was taken, Eli Lambert was still a resident of the Moccasin area. He indicated that he was 43 years of age; Manervey, his wife, was 37. The Lambert children named in this report were: Stuart, 14, and must have been the son recorded as Ephraim in the 1870 census; Francis, 12; Elizabeth, 10, and most likely the infant, Sarah, in 1870; John, 17; Margaret, 11; and Toby, 1 month. Step-children listed were: Sylvester Brown, 13; Frances Brown, 11; and Roda Brown, 6.

Minerva Lambert was a daughter of Tobias and Frances "Fannie" Steagall Cocke (Cox), natives of VA. Information given on her tombstone show that she was born Aug 19, 1840, I believe in VA.

Minerva had first married Thomas Brown, a son of Stephen and Mary Dehart Brown, and they are found named in the 1870 Elliott Co census.

I am not sure of the date when Thomas Brown died, but if Rhoda, the youngest Brown child named in 1880, was 6 years of age, we may conclude that Thomas' death probably not before 1874.

Typhoid fever struck this particular Brown family in the 1870s, killing many of them, with Thomas being, perhaps, one of the victims.

I have not see a marriage date for Eli Lambert and Manerva Cocke Brown Lambert. With their son, Toby, being only 1 month old when the 1880 census was taken, it may be that their marriage was about 1879.

In 1900, Eli Lambert stated that he was born in Sept 1836, and was, at that time, 63 years of age. Minerva, his wife, was 58, indicating that she was born in Aug 1842. They stated that they had been married 21 years and had 8 children, 1 of which was deceased. Children named in the 1900 census were: Tobias, age 20, born Apr 1879; Lydia J., 18, Oct 1881; and Doctor D., 15, May 1885.

Eli and Minerva Lambert are buried, along with several of their descendants, in the Crix Cemetery in Rowan Co. According to their gravestone, which I have seen, Eli died Mar 20, 1926, and Minerva died Jan 30, 1937.

I have heard the late Ida Brown Adkins speak often of her "Aunt Nerv Lambert". Ida's parents were Steve and Liz Cox Brown.

He was also known as Augustus or Gus Davis, the former apparently a case of misinterpreting "Gus" as a nickname for Augustus, and the latter probably a phonetic way of spelling Gus-tavus as two words, rather than a true middle name.

History Of Delaware County, Indiana

DAVID HENRY HARRISON SHEWMAKER was born November 16, 1840, in Harrison county, Indiana His father, Tandy Shewmaker, was a native of Kentucky, and his mother a native of Virginia. His father was a soldier in the war of 1812 and belonged to the famous cavalry of Col. Dick Johnson, taking part in the battle of the Thames, in which the noted chief Tecumseh was killed. In 1820 he came to Indiana and settled in the wilderness of Harrison county, where he cleared and improved a farm. There he was engaged in agricultural pursuits until 1872, when he died at the advanced age of ninety-four years. D. H. H. Shewmaker worked on the farm with his father until the outbreak of the rebellion, when he was enrolled a member of the Third Indiana cavalry -- a part of the army of the Potomac. He was mustered into service with his regiment June 22, 1861, and took part in the battles around Richmond, under Gen. McClellan; also the battles of South Mountain, Antietam, Fredericksburg and South Mountain, Antietam, Fredericksburg and Chancellorsville. During the Gettysburg campaign he received a severe gunshot wound, from which he never recovered. He did not permit this injury to interfere with his service to the Union, however, and followed Grant in his victorious campaign against Petersburg and Richmond, taking part in all general engagements, beside numerous skirmishes. His regiment, which was a part of Gen. Phil Sheridan's famous cavalry, was commanded by Col. Geo. H. Chapman, of Indianapolis, who was afterward elevated to the rank of brigadier general. At the close of the war Mr. Shewmaker returned to his home, and, in 1865, married Miss Nancy Abigail McRea, daughter of Franklin and Rachel (Sands) McRea. They are the parents of three children, named, respectively, Della, Emma and Walter, all now living to bless the home circle.

At the age of sixteen years Mr. Shewmaker taught his first school, and, with the exception of the time spent in the army, has since devoted his time and talents to that profession. Beginning in the district schools of the county, he has steadily advance to the front as a teacher. He was principal of the graded schools at Elizabeth, Harrison county, Indiana, for four years and taught one term at Yorktown, in Delaware county, where he organized the graded schools. In 1874 he was appointed principal of the Jefferson school at Muncie, a position he filled with eminent ability for a period of eight years. For one year he held the position of principal of the Muncie high school, and afterward became principal of the Washington schools, which position, by successive reappointments, he has held for ten consecutive years. He has displayed great tact in school government, studying carefully the dispositions of his pupils and endeavoring to control them by kindness rather than by hard measures. It is a fact worthy of note that only two suspensions have occurred in the Washington building during the period of his incumbency as principal. He is enthusiastic in the cause of public education, and devotes a great deal of his time to the encouragement and assistance of teachers' institutes throughout the county. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and unites the virtues of a christian gentleman with his ability as a teacher.

Politically Prof. Shewmaker has ever been an earnest supporter of the republican party and cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln for the presidency. He was nominated and elected a member of the common council of Muncie in the spring of 1888, re-elected in 1890, and retired from the position in 1892, and to his untiring efforts is largely due the credit of the successful prosecution and completion of the first street railway in Muncie. In the spring of 1889, in partnership with his son-in-law, H. Marsh Jackson, Prof. Shewmaker embarked in the retail drug trade, which he carried on until the fall of 1889. In 1880 he had charge of the United States census enumeration in the city of Muncie and did the entire work in the gathering of the statistics, but in 1890, owing to the increased population, was assisted in the work by several enumerators. In Masonic circles Prof. Shewmaker has filled official positions in the local lodge. His name also appears as one of the organizers upon the charter of Williams post, No. 78, G. A. R.

HISTORY INDIANA DEMOCRACY NEWSPAPER

In 1843 the outfit was purchased by Phineas M. Kent and the name changed to Soiitli-Western Democrat. Another sale or two finally brought the paper into the possession of Bradley & Lucas, who, after a year, sold out to Norman & Bosworth in 1849. The latter firm changed the name to the Neic Albany Ledger and it at once took prominent standing as a political paper. Norman was a strong writer, a man of great literary ability and tht peer of Prentice in some ways. Bosworth soon retired from the Ledger and Mr. Kent again became one of the owners and put it upon its financial feet. He was a man of means, owned a large mill, and was first president of the St. Louis Air Line, now part of the Southern system. Norman's political influence pervaded this particular section of Indiana and he was acknowledged as one of the ablest of Indiana editors. He died October 30, 1869. His interest was transferred to Lucius G. Matthews, who in 1872 sold to Merrill & Meter, when a stock company was formed and the paper was consolidated with the Standard, the company consisting of C. E. Merrill, C. R. Moter, Josiah Gwin, J. V. Kelso, Charles E. Johnson. Shortly after the consolidation all but Mr. Gwin retired from the ownership and James P. Applegate, Jonathan Peters, Josiah Gwin and Adam H'lmer became the owners.

The Standard, which had come into the combination, was born in 1871 and was ably edited. Mr. Kelso, one of its owners, was an able lawyer, a shrewd politician and a strong fighter for his own and the opinions of his party. All these men have gone to their last rest, and for a number of years the Ledger was the sole property of Miss Ada Peters, who proved to be one of the best newspaper women of the State, and has the esteem of her community. She sold the paper in the fall of 1916 to Evan B. Stotsenberg, who this year (1918) sold to Bruce Ulster, his manager.

The editors of the Ledger at all times played quite an important part in district politics, and its late owner is a well-known figure, not only in district but in State politics as well, having served the unexpired term of the late Attorney-General Milburn and having been a candidate for the office in the late campaign. His father before him, Judge John H. Stotsenberg, was also prominent in Indiana politics and was a most polished and cultivated gentleman. Major Kelso, who was connected with the Ledger, is also succeeded by a son, C. B. Kelso, equally as able as his father and an equally staunch Democrat and successful attorney and business man.

PROMINENT CITIZEN DEAD

J. A. Leedy Passes Away at His Home Here Wednesday at 12:05 O'clock - Community Mourns.

Death has again invaded our city and claims as its victim, J. A. Leedy, one of our most prominent citizens and leading business men. He had been in poor health for several months and this last spring he gave up his active life in the store and since had been trying to regain his health. He went to West Baden, Indiana, in the summer hoping that the baths there would benefit him and, in fact, did feel some better after his return home. About a month ago he took a turn for the worse and since that time had been confined to his home, death relieving him of his sufferings as stated above. The cause of his demise being Brights disease and enlargement of the heart. He was a patriotic citizen and was always ready and willing to lend a hand in anything that was for the betterment of his home town. He has been in business here for over twenty years and was a successful merchant. A little over two years ago he erected a handsome business building and was now just ready to do business on a large scale and in a convenient manner. He will be greatly missed from our community and the entire citizenship extends sympathy to the bereaved wife and relatives.

OBITUARY.

James Albert Leedy, youngest son of James and Catherine Leedy, was born on the banks of the Wabash river near Terre Haute in Vigo county, Indiana, March 30, 1850. After the death of his father his mother removed with her family to Somers township, Champaign county, Illinois. The mother afterward married B. F. Argo and the family resided on his farm, now known as the Bowers farm, for many years. When Albert was about twenty years of age he came to St. Joseph and lived the rest of his life in this village. December 17, 1882, he was married to Melvina Peters, who survives. Mr. Leedy was the youngest of a family of nine children all of whom have preceded him to the spirit land. For more than forty years he was a resident of St. Joseph and for more than twenty years a successful merchant. He believed in his town and was interested in everything that contributed to the welfare of the community. He was an officer of the St. Joseph Building Loan and Investment Association from its organization and also for years a member of the village council. He united with the church in 1886 under the ministry of Rev. Harmon Gregg. He was faithful and loyal to the cause of Christ and his church, ever ready to give time, money, and effort that his church might flourish and the kingdom of Christ be advanced. He leaves a name that is honored among men for his public spirit, his business integrity and his high sense of public and private morality. For the past two years he has been in failing health and during the past month grew worse rapidly until on Wednesday, September 27, 1911, at 12 o'clock, noon, he passed to the other shore, aged 61 years, 5 months and 27 days.

Notes for William Bibb Leedy Sr. (7497):

LEEDY, WILLIAM BIBB, real estate and insurance man, was born December 25, 1846, at Aberdeen, Monroe County, Miss.; son of Lorenzo Dow and Sarah Ann (Bibbs) Leedy, who were married and lived in Huntsville, the former a native of Abingdon, Va., born February 22, 1816, who lived at that place until he was eighteen years of age, when he moved to Alabama and located at Huntsville, the latter a native of Madison County, born in 1818; grandson of James Leedy, a teacher and farmer, who lived at or near Abingdon, Va., and of William and Sarah (Garrett) Bibb, of Huntsville, the former a Virginian, born in 1783, in Goochland County, who died and was buried in Huntsville, 1883, the latter also a native of Virginia, born in 1785, in Amherst County, who died and was buried in Huntsville, 1839; great-grandson of James and Elizabeth (Bibb) Bibb, cousins, and William and Ann (George) Garrett, the former a native of Amherst County, Va., who moved to Nashville, and fought in the Revolutionary War, first enlisting as a private, then entering the artillery service.

Mr. Leedy was reared and educated at Aberdeen, Miss., until, on account of the death of his mother in 1851, and of his father in 1862, he went to live with his mother's people at Huntsville. At that time Huntsville was occupied by Federal troops, and Mr. Leedy, with several of his boy friends and schoolmates accepted a position as clerk under a quartermaster in the U. S. army, on condition that he should not be required to take the oath of allegiance. When the troops were withdrawn previous to Hood's advance in Tennessee, in November, 1864, Mr. Leedy took part in the immediate organization of a cavalry company for the C. S. Army. His company was mustered in as Co. I, Fourth Alabama cavalry, Russell's regiment, Forrest's command, and he became second sergeant of the company. In the first fight in which he took part, on Hood's retreat to the Tennessee River, he and a number of his comrades were captured and imprisoned at Nashville. When the fact that he had held a clerical position under the Federal quartermaster at Huntsville was discovered, he and eighteen others, similarly situated, were charged as spies and tried before a "drum head" court martial. They were offered the choice of taking the oath of allegiance and going north until after the surrender, or of being convicted and sentenced to death. Before the sentence could be carried into effect, Gen. Forrest sent an officer to Nashville under the flag of truce with the warning that he should hang a Federal officer for every one of the nineteen that were executed. Proceedings were stayed until the matter was brought before President Lincoln, who gave orders which resulted in the exchange of the nineteen for Federal prisoners in Libby prison. Sergt. Leedy obtained his freedom at Richmond, March, 1865, and was on a sixty day furlough at the time of Lee's surrender. He gave himself up at Meridian, Miss.; was paroled, and given transportation to Huntsville.

He became a pharmacist at Memphis, Tenn., 1866-1870, attending a college of pharmacy at Philadelphia, Pa., 1868-1869. He entered the banking business at Huntsville in 1870; became a partner of W. R. Risen and company, bankers, 1876-1887; moved to Birmingham in 1887, and became a dealer in real estate and insurance. He is a member of W. J. Hardee camp, United Confederate Veterans; and has been a colonel on the staff of Gen. George P. Harrison, and of George B. Gordon. S. D. Lee, Clement Evans Gordon, and Bennett H. Young. He is a Democrat; a Presbyterian; and an Elk.

Married: September 18, 1873, at Memphis, Tenn., to Kate Stratton, who died June 9, 1914; daughter of John Thomas and Emma (Ferguson) Stratton, of Memphis, natives, respectively, of Franklin, Ky., and Brownsville, Tenn.; granddaughter of Henry and Margaret (Rayburn) Stratton, Virginians, who moved from their native state to Franklin, Ky., then to Holly Springs, Miss., and finally to Memphis, Tenn., and of James Butler and Eliza (Gibbs) Ferguson, natives, respectively, of Belfast, Ireland, and Wilmington, N. C. Children: 1. John Stratton, unmarried; 2. William Bibb, jr., m. Mabel Roy, Birmingham, child, Katherine Leedy; 3. Emma Stratton, m. I. F. Young, Birmingham, child, Kate Leedy. Residence: Birmingham.

After the war began, William B. Leedy (born 1846) returned to Madison County AL to live with his mother's family. According to Federal records, he was employed by the Quartermaster Department at Huntsville AL during the Federal occupation of that city. When Huntsville returned to Confederate control during Hood's Tennessee Campaign, Leedy joined a cavalry company organized by Thomas B. Jordan as 3rd Co. "I", Roddey's 4th Alabama Cavalry, known as the "Jordan Light Guards." Sgt. Leedy was captured at Indian Creek AL, Dec. 23, 1864, along with about fifty other Confederates from Roddey's command. Prisoner-of-war records list him as a Federal deserter, tried in Nashville TN, Feb. 14, 1865. He was released on special exchange near City Point VA the following month, as noted on Doc. 195 in General Forrest's military service file.

Notes for John Francis Archibald Leedy (7439):

John Leedy was born in May 1848 in Washington County, Virginia. John's family left Virginia in the early-mid 1850s. In 1870 they were enumerated in Springfield, Greene County, Missouri where John's father was working as a builder. John at 21 was working as a clerk in a store. His 5 younger siblings were also present. He married Frances A. Mitchell. She had 2 previous marriages, one of which was to ____ Clark with whom she had at least 2 children. A few years after their marriage John and Frances were enumerated farming in the Brookline township area of Greene County. Besides John (33) and Francis

(43) the household included 2 children from Francis's earlier marriage and the 2 children born to the couple in the late 1870s: son Francis and daughter Ella May. From 1900 on John and Francis lived in Springfield. John appears to have returned to a line of work he no doubt learned from his father. In 1900 he was enumerated as a furniture dealer, in 1910 he was employed as a carpenter and in 1920 as a cabinetman at a planing mill. By 1920 the couple's 40 year old son Francis was divorced and had returned to his parent's home. He was employed in a car factory [this may have been a train car factory as there were many neighbors working in capacities associated with the railroad]. In 1900 Francis [wife] was reported as the mother of 9 children, 6 of whom were living. However the 1910 census stated that she was the mother of 2 children, both of whom were living [probably just her 2 children with John]. The family does not appear to have remained in one location in the city. In 1910 they were enumerated on Grant St. while in 1920 they were at 2205 Johnson Street. Francis died in 1922 at the age of 85. Her address at the time was listed at 1916 Franklin St. in Springfield. He married second Malissa E. (?). At age 77 John and his second wife "Mallissa" (64) were enumerated together in Springfield. John was still employed and listed his occupation as a contractor. John died of chronic cardiovascular disease on 9 Sep 1936 in Springfield, Greene County, Missouri, at age 88. He was buried on 11 Sep 1936 at Hazelwood Cemetery in Springfield.

Wife of William T. Curtis. She was born in Abingdon MO. the daughter of AG Ludy and Virginia A. Maiden, both born in VA.

Cause of death was intestinal obstruction. She was interred on Nov. 12, 1912.

This woman has apparently married more than once. Perhaps twice. Frank Bynum Sr. on the lot with her and husband William. Researching the possible relationship I found them in the same household together and Frank was listed as a stepson. There was a daughter named Anna Bynum and an older sibling also listed as a stepson age 20, Archie Atkinson. A son named William P age 20, Lewis Curtis age 19, so he would have been from a first or second marriage for him. It is possible that Archie was a son of a second wife and William was raising him for some reason. It does not mean he had to be the son of Virginia. I just do not know, a bit of brainstorming.

Early and Recent History and Genealogical Records of Many of the Representative Citizens

JOSEPH W. LEEDY. His life-long residence in Greene county, his upright life and mature judgment, and the many services he rendered made the name of the late Joseph W. Leedy, for thirty years a leading merchant of Springfield, a synonym for character and worth. One could not contemplate the life record of such a man without gaining therefrom many helpful hints and forming at the same time a very high opinion of the individual, for his affable nature, charitable impulses and benevolent work, extending over a period of years, resulted in incalculable good and stamped him as a whole-souled man and would alone excite the admiration of all, especially of the contemplative turn of mind, for his services to his fellow men came not from a desire to win the plaudits of the world or from any ulterior motive, but merely out of an altruistic nature and a spirit of profound human sympathy. It is scarcely necessary to say that in the inviolable precincts of an ideal home life the true nobility of Mr. Leedy found perfect apotheosis, but there is no desire in this connection to lift the sacred veil of the fireside circle. When he was summoned to close his eyes on earthly scenes when in the zenith of his material success and usefulness to society, all felt that a good man had been called away who could not well be spared. Mr. Leedy was born on a farm near Springfield, Missouri, March 6, 1857. He was a son of A. G. and Mary (Maiden) Leedy, both natives of Virginia, of excellent southern blood. They spent their early lives in the Old Dominion and removed to Greene county, Missouri in early pioneer times and here became widely and favorably known for many years ranking among the leading agriculturists of the county. These parents lived to advanced ages, the mother having survived her son, Joseph W., and died at the age of eighty-four. Their family consisted of six children, namely: Joseph W., of this sketch; Annie married H. L. Ennis (deceased), of Chicago, and to them seven children were born; John is a carpenter and builder of Springfield; Mary married John Flannigan of Carthage, Missouri, and they have two children; Ella married George Booth, an attorney of Webb City, Missouri, and they have one son, Hunter; Mrs. Virginia Curtis who died in 1912.

Joseph W. Leedy grew to manhood in Springfield, where his family had come when he was seven years of age, and he received a good practical education in the schools of Springfield, which was later greatly supplemented by contact with the business world and by home reading on a general scale. He had a decided natural bent for mercantile pursuits, and this was his vocation in Springfield for a period of thirty years, having started here when but a boy, and eight years of this period he conducted a large dry goods store at 225-227 East Commercial street, on his own account. Here he maintained a large and well stocked store, modern in every respect and managed under a superb system, employing a number of assistants, and many of his hundreds of customers came from remote parts of the county, for they knew they would always receive honest and courteous treatment here. By his indomitable energy, close application and integrity he built up one of the best known and leading dry goods businesses in the county, and a comfortable fortune resulted from his efforts. The business is still carried on along the lines which, he inaugurated, under the name of the Leedy Dry Goods & Company of which Mrs. Essie Leedy, a lady of rare executive ability and foresight is the leading spirit and she is making a pronounced success of the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Leedy first met in a store where they were both clerking, and their happy and harmonious domestic life began when their marriage nuptials were celebrated on January 3, 1903. She was known in her maidenhood as Essie Carter, and was born and reared on a farm near Springfield and received a good education in the local schools. She is a daughter of Hazen Blanchard and Elizabeth (Banfield) Carter, the former now deceased, but the mother survives; she lives on the old homestead two miles north of Springfield. Mr. Carter was a highly respected farmer, owning a farm two miles from Springfield. His family consisted of seven children, four sons and three daughters, namely: Sterling, Sherman, Blanchard, Emmett, Janie, Essie and Etta.

The union of Mr. and Mrs. Leedy was blessed by the birth of one child, Langdon Lee Leedy, whose birth occurred May 5, 1910 and he is a bright and promising child. Mrs. Leedy has a beautiful home on North Grant street.

Politically, Mr. Leedy was a Republican. He attended the Christian church. He belonged to no secret orders from choice as his whole thought and attention were given to his family and home outside of business hours.

Mr. Leedy was summoned suddenly to his eternal rest on July 1913, at the early age of fifty-six years. His death will long be deplored by a host of warm friends and admirers.

Andrews

About the time the survey of what is now the Wabash Railroad was made, Abraham Leedy conceived the idea of laying out a town in Dallas Township for a railroad station. He therefore purchased of Martin Harvey a tract of forty acres of land in the southwest quarter of Section 23, Township 28, Range 8, on the line of the proposed road, and employed Peter Emery to divide it into town lots. Mr. Emery made the survey on December 12, 1853, and on the 30th of the same month the plat was filed in the office of the county recorder of Huntington County by Mr. Leedy, under the name of "Antioch." This original plat shows thirty-three lots and two large out-lots. The following August Leedy & Wintrobe's addition of eighty-four lots was platted, and in June, 1859, J. H. Campbell's addition of thirty-nine lots was added to the town. Since then the original plat has been increased by Baker's addition, Bellman's first, second and third additions, McKeever's addition and the addition of S. J. Leedy.

The first house in the town was built by Abraham Leedy, who was also the first merchant. Other early merchants were William Randolph, who was for several years in partnership with Mr. Leedy, Elijah Snowden, John Collins, J. Parrott, E. B. Cubberly, Thomas Gibb and Joseph Snyder. Thomas King was one of the pioneer residents of Antioch and became associated with Mr. Leedy in operating the first sawmill, which was built soon after the railroad was completed. This mill afterward was sold to Gardner & Blish, who added machinery for the manufacture of baskets. It was later converted into a sawmill and stave factory by Morris & Bell, which firm did a large business, employing about fifty men.

For a time the growth of the town was rather slow, but as the resources of the surrounding country were developed Antioch became an important shipping point. About the close of the Civil war it had the reputation of being the best local trading town between Huntington and Wabash. A steam sawmill was added to the business interests in 1862 by King, Morris & Richardson. Elijah Snowden "erected a flour mill in 1864, and not long after that the Antioch Manufacturing Company was organized for the manufacture of plow handles and certain lines of furniture. The plant of this concern was subsequently acquired by Cubberly & Irwin, who converted it into a flour mill. It was destroyed by fire about 1876. In 1866 Lessel Long started a carriage and wagon shop and did a successful business for a number of years.

The first hotel in the town was the "Forest Home," built by Joel Cramer about 1855 or 1856. It was afterward kept for several years by a man named Manford, but was finally converted into a dwelling.

About 1857 the German Baptists, or Brethren, built the first church in the town. The Christian Church was erected in 1862, though the society had been organized some four years before, and the Methodist Church was established in 1860. At the present time these denominations are all represented in Andrews by neat houses of worship.

Early in the year 1881 the officials of the Wabash Railroad decided to locate a division point somewhere on the line between Fort Wayne and Lafayette. After looking over various places, they came to the conclusion that the level country about Antioch offered better facilities for yards, roundhouse and repair shops than any other station, and a plat of ground just west of the town was chosen as the site of the new enterprise. Then Antioch experienced a boom. A large force of men were soon employed in the construction of yards, the erection of the roundhouse, etc., and under this influence several additions were laid out. Lots sold rapidly and brought good prices. The railroad company also laid the foundation of a building intended for the division superintendent's office. Because the company called their yards and shops "Andrewsia," in honor of one of the officials of the road, it was proposed that the name of the town be changed from Antioch to Andrews. There was some opposition to this move, but it was overcome and the Town of Antioch passed out of existence just as the Town of Andrews came in. Hardly had the change in name been effected when the Wabash Company became the lessee of the Indianapolis, Peru & Chicago Railroad (now known as the Lake Erie & Western), and the division point was removed from Andrews to Peru. The building for the general division offices was never finished and the old foundation stood for several years, a mournful relic of what was to have been one of the sources of Andrews' prosperity.

At least one citizen of Andrews took a philosophical view of the situation. While some of the people were inclined to be acrimonious in their criticisms of the railroad company for removing its shops and yards, Garrett Van Dolson, an old resident, comforted them with the remark: "We lived here before the Wabash became interested. We can live here after it removes its stuff." Quite a number of those who located in the town took a different view and began looking for a more active business and industrial center to which they could transfer their residence. In January, 1885, the Andrews Express, the only newspaper in the town, was removed to Huntington and consolidated with the News. The great railroad strike of 1894 put an end to the hopes of Andrews of ever becoming a great railroad center. The bridge and building department was the last of the railroad interests to be taken away.

Although the removal of the railroad interests was a great blow to Andrews, the town survived and in recent years has shown renewed signs of industrial activity. It is one of the neatest and most attractive residence towns in the Wabash Valley. Its streets are well kept; cement sidewalks have been laid on nearly all the principal streets; it has a large kitchen cabinet factory and some minor enterprises in the manufacturing line, a grain elevator, a bank, a public library, a $25,000 public school building, in which eight teachers are employed, four of them in the commissioned high school grades, a weekly newspaper, lodges of the leading secret orders, and the usual complement of mercantile establishments found in towns of its size. Transportation facilities are afforded by the Wabash Railroad and the Fort Wayne & Northern Indiana Traction Company's line. The casual visitor to Andrews is impressed by the great number of beautiful shade trees that adorn the streets and lawns, and the uniform courtesy of the people. A city hall was built in 1905, at a cost of about three thousand five hundred dollars.

About the time of the railroad boom Andrews was incorporated. The officers for the year 1914 were: W. F. Wise, O. C. Billings and John Blose, trustees, with Mr. Wise president of the board; M. B. Park, clerk; R. O. Bixby, treasurer.

Some years ago a franchise was granted to a company to establish an electric light and power plant, but the company sold out and electric light and power is now supplied by the company at Huntington. In the spring of 1914 the bonded debt of the town was $4,200 and the authorities had under consideration at that time the establishment of a system of waterworks for the town. The population in 1910 was 957.

In a sketch of Andrews published in the Huntington Times a few years ago, a local writer says: "There were more champion checker players within its limits than any town on the Wabash line, and more crack marksmen with a rifle. Uncle Jesse Miller, deceased, the pump manufacturer, had the biggest voice. He telephoned to North Manchester one day and the boys declared that when he squared away and shouted into the receiver, the people in North Manchester heard the message without the use of the line."

Notes for Joseph Leedy (7928):

Frank Leedy was born in Indiana in 1842. When he was 17, he came across the plains from St. Louis, driving bull teams with other immigrants. After arriving at Salt Lake, he drove on to Helena, arriving Helena in 1865. He made his home in and around Helena since that time.

In 1887, Mr. Leedy and Mrs. Jeanette Whitehead were married. They lived at 522 Park Avenue until the death of his wife, Jeanette, in 1921.

After his wife died, he lived with his daughters. He was a pioneer mining man, following mining most of the time, and was a familiar figure in Marysville, Park City, and Unionville.

On January 6, 1924, Frank died after a short illness. He had suffered a severe cold the day before Christmas, which developed into acute asthma. He was moved from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Leo Rhein, in Wolf Creek, to St. Peter's Hospital. His advanced years and a weakened heart contributed to the cause of death. The funeral was held in Flaherty and Kohler's Chapel. Mr. Leedy was survived by three daughters and one stepdaughter, Mrs. T. A. Whalen, Bozeman, Mrs. Leo Rhein, Wolf Creek, Mrs. J. W. Manning, Seattle, and Mrs. H. F. McCann, Great Falls. (Helena Independent, 1/7/1924)

He shares a marker inscribed "Frank and Jeanette Leedy," the marker is a rock.

Notes for Robert Franklin Leedy (575):

Member of the Virginia House of Delegates, Virginia State Senator, Virginia National Guard officer, and attorney, Robert F. Leedy received a basic education in the common schools of his county of birth, and after leaving home at the age of 22, spent the next three years mining and railroading. He returned to the family farm when he was about 25 and on March 27, 1890, married Emma Cathrine Keister. Shortly after marrying, the couple relocated to Basic City, Virginia where he engaged in a variety activities there, including real estate and mercantile pursuits. He also began to read law under D.S. Henkle, and in the offices of Floyd Wise Weaver and John B. Minor. Eventually entering the summer law school at the University of Virginia, he was admitted to the bar in Augusta County in September 1893. In the midst of his legal education, he was elected mayor of Basic City. Reelected in 1894, he resigned a year later and moved to Luray. A junior partner in the law firm of Weaver (Floyd Wise Weaver) and Leedy, he left the firm in 1899 to practice alone. In 1908, he partnered with Richard F. Berry and T.L. Benson to create the firm of Leedy and Berry. During his legal career, he was known for work on several cases pertaining to railroad damage suits. In 1914, he was elected as a member of the Virginia House of Delegates. Representing Page and Rappahannock counties, he held his seat for two terms. Though a successful lawyer, Leedy was also regularly involved in military matters, serving with the Virginia Volunteers (National Guard) for many years. In September 1902, he was made captain of the "Page Rifles," which was an unassigned militia company in Luray until mustered in as Company C of the 2nd Virginia Regiment. He quickly rose in the regiment, being promoted to lieutenant colonel in June 1905 and full colonel by August of the same year. In June 1916, the 2nd Regiment was one of a number called up from the National Guard in a support role in support of the Pancho Villa Expedition. He continued to command the regiment during its nine month stay near the Mexican border, at Brownsville, Texas. Not long after the regiment returned to Virginia, it was called-up again for service when the United States committed to participation in the First World War. When the regiment was sent to Camp McClellan, Alabama in preparation for shipment overseas as part of the American Expeditionary Force, it was combined with the 1st and 4th Virginia as the 116th Regiment, subsequently becoming part of the 29th Infantry Division. Though he planned to continue to command the regiment after the consolidation, Leedy failed rigorous physical tests and was relieved of command. He returned to Luray in March 1918 and was elected the following fall as an unopposed Democrat to the Senate of Virginia, representing Page, Warren, and Clarke counties. During this time, he continued to be a strong advocate for the National Guard and he collaborated with James Hay in the development of the Hay Army Bill, giving new status to the National Guard. Leedy was also known, during his time in the Senate of Virginia in 1920, for his strong opposition to prohibition and Women's Suffrage. In that same year, he unsuccessfully made a bid for the U.S. House of Representatives, running against Thomas W. Harrison of Winchester for Virginia's 7th Congressional District. A major factor in his loss may have been that he ran on an anti-Volstead platform in a dry district. Two years later, despite efforts of his supporters to get him to run again, Leedy opted to support Harrison. Leedy became very ill in December 1923 and, by January, had developed a case of double pneumonia, resulting in his death. He was active in many organizations including the Freemasons and the American Legion.

Notes for John Leedy Garber (137):

John Leedy Garber built 14 homes.

From Richland County, OH History;

JOHN L. GARBER.

There is particular interest in reverting to the life history of the honored and venerable gentleman whose name initiates this review, for his mind bears the impress of the historical annals of the state of Ohio from the early pioneer days to the present time. For a long period he was identified with the agricultural interests of this section of the state but now at the age of eighty-two years he is living retired, having in former years accumulated a competency that now supplies him with all the comforts of life.

John L. Garber was born near his present home, December 11, 1826, a son of Samuel and Catherine (Leedy) Garber, the former born in York county, Pennsylvania, May 8, 1804. His father entered the war of 1812 as a civilian employee and was never heard from afterward. The mother then removed to Bedford county, Pennsylvania, where the son Samuel was placed in charge of a relative, who mistreated him and he returned to his mother, who in the meantime had married Samuel Brawler. Samuel Garber remained in his native state until 1821, when he made his way to Richland county and for a time worked at the shoemaker's trade, after which he was employed by John Leedy, a farmer. It was there that he formed the acquaintance of the daughter, Catherine Leedy, whom he afterward made his wife. He then began farming on his own account and spent his remaining days in Richland county. His family numbered twelve children, of whom our subject is the eldest.

John L. Garber was reared on his father's farm, assisting in clearing the wild land and developing the fields into a cultivable tract. During those early days the family had to endure many hardships, the methods of farming being quite unlike those of the present day, and the family had to go to Sandusky to do their trading. Mr. Garber remained under the parental roof until he attained his majority, at which time he went to Cedar county, Iowa, to join an uncle, who was a millwright by trade. He worked as a millwright in that state for three years, when he once more returned to Richland county and engaged in repairing mills along the Clear fork. He also assisted in building a steam mill in Wyandot county, Ohio. About that time his father erected a brick house, the first in this section of the state, and Mr. Garber roofed the dwelling. This induced some of the neighbors to solicit his services in the erection of houses and in all he helped to build sixteen dwellings. He then engaged in farming, having purchased sixty acres in "Worthington township, which he farmed for one year. Disposing of that property, he then bought one hundred and sixty acres in partnership with a brother but this was later divided, our subject taking eighty acres on section 33, Jefferson township. To this he later added from time to time as his financial resources increased until he possessed three hundred and twenty acres. For a long period he continued to carry on agricultural pursuits on an extensive scale and accumulated quite a comfortable fortune.

About a year ago he divided his land among his children and since that time has lived in well earned ease.

On (he 27th of August, 1854, Mr. Garber was united in marriage to Miss Mary Swank, who was born October 21, 1830, and still survives. Their union was blessed with ten children, namely: Zeria, who was born March 24, 1855; Elizabeth; Samuel, who owns a farm of one hundred and fifty acres in Knox county; Catherine; Florence; Alvira; Charles; one who died in infancy; Walter; and two who died in infancy.

Mr. Garber has .strong prohibition tendencies but casts an independent vote, regarding men and measures rather than party ties. He served as trustee for two terms and also filled the office of school director. He is a charter member of Jefferson Grange, while both he and his wife are members of the Univcrsalist church.

Mr. Garber is accorded a place among the pioneer citizens of Richland county, for he belongs to that class of men whose enterprising spirit 'has been used not alone for his own benefit but for the advancement of the community in which he has always made his home. He is widely and favorably known throughout the county and receives that respect and veneration which should ever be accorded orve who has advanced thus far on the journey of life.

DAVID LEEDY GARBER

When Richland county was a frontier district the Garber family was established in this section of Ohio and in both paternal and maternal lines David L Garber was a representative of early families of this section who established their homes here on the frontier.

David Leedy Garber was born in Jefferson township Richland county Ohio April 3, 1831. His parents were Samuel and Catherine Leedy Garber who were pioneer residents of the southern portion of Richland county. As the years passed they assisted largely in the early development of the county and among pioneer surroundings and environments David L. Garber was reared. He acquired his education in the early district schools although opportunities of that day were very limited. The school buildings were often constructed of logs and were furnished in a very primitive manner. Comparatively few branches were taught at that date but Mr Garber was naturally a bright student and soon mastered the courses that comprised the curriculum at that time.

He early learned what hard work on the farm meant as he assisted in agricultural pursuit developing and cultivating new land. He carried on general agricultural pursuits throughout his entire life. He was a very successful farmer and made more than usual progress in his chosen occupation.

On the 8th of April 1852, David L. Garber was married to Miss Susan Leedy, his mother's cousin. She is still living having long survived Mr Garber who passed away April 5, 1865. Mr and Mrs Garber reared a large family who have been a credit and honor to their name. Their eldest son Aaron Leedy Garber was married to Mary Etta Myers and resides in Ashland, Ohio. He is editor publisher author and minister and is well known and honored by reason of his life of general usefulness. Unto him and his wife were born one son and two daughters. Elihu Leedy Garber the second son married Ida Hitter and has one son. He deals in musical instruments teaches music and was for a number of years editor of the Bellville Star. Franklin Leedy Garber married Lovina Carpenter. He has five sons and four daughters and is now engaged in farming and stock raising making his home upon the old farm which was originally the property of John Leedy. He also is known as a writer on agricultural subjects. Levi Leedy Garber wedded Alma Mooman by whom he had one son and two daughters. For years he has been at the head of the normal department of the Ashland College of Ashland Ohio and is the author of a series of study outlines for use in schools and colleges. Martha Elizabeth Garber is the wife of Mr Shireby by whom she has two children and they make their home near Butler, Ohio. Jennie Alice Garber is the wife of Edwin Grain and the mother of eight children. Ezra the next member of the family died when six months old. Mrs Susan Leedy Garber the mother some years after the death of her first husband became the wife of Stephen P Dyer and had one son who is now deceased and one daughter Mrs Bell Keyser who is living in Columbus Ohio. Mrs Dyer is still living and enjoying good health at the age of seventy seven years. Her first husband Mr Garber is well remembered in Richland county where he spent his entire life and where he was widely known as a representative of the agricultural interests He enjoyed the full respect of all with whom he came in contact.

Star: 17 August 1882, Vol. V, No. 46]

Jehu L. Garber, a life-long resident of Jefferson Township, passed peacefully to his reward, Friday, Feb. 6, at 3 a.m., after a year's illness with a complicated disease. The funeral took place from the family home east of Bellville, Monday at 12 o'clock, the services being conducted by rev. H.L. Canfield of Milan. The interment was made in the Bellville Cemetery, under the auspices of Casca Lodge, No. 382, K. of P., of which order deceased was a member. The ritualistic work of the lodge was performed in a very impressive manner, and was witnessed by a large number of people, who were present to pay the last tribute of respect to the memory of the departed. Deceased was born of Swiss lineage, in Jefferson Township, Oct. 29, 1835, and was therefore aged 67 years, three months and seven days, at the time of his death. He as one of a family of eleven children, of whom survive, John L., of Jefferson Township; Lewis L., of Bellville; Mrs. Aaron Leedy, and Jackson L., of Missouri; Washington Garber, of Cincinnati; Theodore L. Garber and Mrs. O.B. Rummel, of Bellville. He was united in marriage June 19, 1856, with Miss Susan Wallace, of Knox County, who is still living. To them were born nine children, of whom survive Mrs. John Watson, Mrs. S.A. Oyster, Misses Ida M. and Myrtle Garber, Horatio S. and J.W. Garber of Jefferson Township, and J.M. Garber of Mt. Vernon. Something over a year ago Mr. Garber took his son Wallace to New Mexico for his health but despite all that could be done for him he succumbed to consumption. While there, Mr. Garber contracted a cold which resulted in other complications and he gradually grew worse until he passed away. Mr. Garber was elected county commissioner twice, the first time without opposition and served as such from Jan. 1890 to Sept. 1896. He served some time as a member of the Jefferson Township School Board and of the Board of Trustees. He was prominent in Jefferson Grange and did much to further the interest of the farming class. Mr. Garber's work in the Farmers' Institute at Butler and Bellville, in past years is especially worthy of mention. He acted in the capacity of president of both institutes for a number of years, and was a model presiding officer. His papers on farm affairs, were always well prepared and given, and the vacancy in the institutes can not be filled. In 1902 Gov. Nash appointed him a delegate to the Farmers' International Congress at Colorado Springs, Col., and again in 1902 he was chosen delegate to the same convention, which he was unable to attend on account of ill health. In his death, the community loses a model neighbor, the family an affectionate parent and the people at large a champion for the cause of the down-trodden. -- [Bellville Messenger: 12 February 1903, Vol. 11, No. 6]

MRS. REBECCA GARBER.

Mrs. Rebecca Garber, residing on section 13, Jefferson township, on a fine farm near Bellville, was born in Pennsylvania. March 20, 1837, but was brought to Richland county by her parents in 1841, when about four years of age. She was one of a family of seven children, but only two are now living, her brother, George Wallace, being a resident of Knox county, Ohio. Her father, George Wallace, who was born February 6, 1805, in the Keystone state, died July 18, 1879, and her mother was born March 12, 1808, in Pennsylvania, and died September 12, 1878.

Their daughter Rebecca spent her girlhood days under the parental roof, where she was carefully trained in the work of the household, so that she was well qualified to take charge of a home of her own when on the 19th of June, 1856, she gave her hand in marriage to Jehu Garber. Her husband was born in Jefferson township, this county, October 29, 1835, representing one of the old pioneer families. His father was Samuel Garber, who came to Richland county, Ohio, at a very early epoch in its development. In early life Jehu Garber engaged in teaching school, but in later years devoted his time and energies to farming with excellent results. He was the first secretary of the Grange in this county and was always interested in everything that pertained to the agricultural development of the community. In his own farming operations he displayed a spirit of enterprise and progress and brought his land under a high state of cultivation. In 1864 he took up his abode upon a farm on section 34, Jefferson township, and there year after year he tilled the soil and carried on the work of the fields, his labors making him one of the prosperous agriculturists of the community, and the beautiful brick house, one of the finest houses in Jefferson township, and the home of the Garber family, was built by Mr. Garber.

Into Mr. and Mrs. Garber were born ten children: Eleanora, the wife of John Watson, of this county; Irene, deceased; Clara A., the widow of Nought, Oyster, residing in Jefferson township; Ida May, who is at home with her mother; Horatio (now also on the home farm); James William, of Jefferson county; John M., who lives in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania; and Wallace, Mertu E. and Mamie D., all of whom have passed away. The death of the husband and father occurred February 6, 1903, and was the occasion of deep and widespread regret, for he had won the respect and sincere regard of many with whom he came in contact. He was also a prominent and influential citizen of the community and served as county commissioner for seven years, discharging the duties of the office in a prompt and able manner, his fidelity being indicated by his long continuance in the position. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and was well known for his good traits of heart and mind. He lived to the age of almost sixty-eight years and his entire life was passed in this county. Mrs. Garber still survives her husband and is well known in Bellville and this locality. She is a member of the Universalist church, and both in the church and outside of it she has gained many warm and sincere friends.

From History of Allen and Woodson Counties, Kansas pages 845-846;

The consensus of public opinion places Mr. Leedy among the popular citizens as well as enterprising and prosperous farmers of Woodson county. He is so well known in this portion of Kansas that he needs no introduction to the readers of this volume, most of whom are well acquainted with his useful and upright career. He was born in Richland county, Ohio, March 22, 1847, and is a representative of one of the pioneer families of that state, his paternal grandfather having located there in 1811, only a few years after the admission of the state into the Union. Samuel Leedy, the father of our subject, was also a native of the Buckeye state, and there married Margaret Whitnah, who was born in New York, of Scotch parentage. He lived and died in Ohio, passing away in 1853, when he had reached the thirty-sixth milestone on life's journey. His wife still survives him and at the age of eighty-two years is yet living in Ohio. This worthy couple were the parents of six children, five of whom are yet living; namely: Mrs. Elizabeth Robinson, who is living in Ohio; Mrs. Virginia Hays, a resident of Kansas City, Kansas; Robert B.; John W. who was at one time governor of Kansas and is now living in Seattle, Washington; and H.C., who is a resident of Burlington, Kansas.

Robert B. Leedy was reared in Ohio working upon the farm in summer and doing chores for his board while he attended school in winter, until 1864, when at the early age of seventeen years he enlisted in his country's service as a member of company D, One Hundred and Sixty-third Ohio infantry, which became a part of General Butler's command. He was at City Point when that place was besieged by the rebels. He remained at the front until the term of his enlistment had expired when he returned to his Ohio home and became a student at the Bellville high school, thus fitting himself for a business career, after which he secured a position in the employ of the firm of J.J. Cover & Company of Johnsville. For two years he engaged in clerking, and in 1868 he went to Indiana, where he stayed one year and moved then to Illinois, following farming through the summer months, while in the winter season he engaged in teaching school, soon demonstrating his ability to impart with clearness and readiness to others the knowledge he had acquired. He saved much of his earnings and was thus enabled at a later date to purchase a farm.

In the year 1884 Mr. Leedy came to Kansas, arriving in Neosho Falls on the 10th of December. He purchased a farm of one hundred and sixty acres two miles west and a half mile north of the town, and has since made his home upon this place. He has a tract of rich bottom land, raises fine crops of corn, wheat and potatoes, and also keeps some stock. A pleasant residence and good barn stand near the Neosho river and no accessory of the model farm of the present day is lacking.

While in Illinois, on the 7th of September, 1876, Mr. Leedy was joined in wedlock to Miss Juliet Newport, a native of Montgomery county, that state, and their marriage has been blessed with six children, all of whom are yet living, namely: Mary Virginia, at home; Margaret Juliet, who is teaching in the home district; Oliver O., who is in school; Robert Franklin, Edna and Eugene Newport, who are still under the parental roof. The members of the household occupy an enviable position in the social circles in which they move and their friends are many. Socially Mr. Leedy is connected with Woodson lodge No. 78, K.P., at Neosho Falls, and with B.F. Goss Post. G.A.R. of the same place. He cast his first presidential vote in 1868 for U.S. Grant, when in Indiana and for some time advocated the principles of the republican party, but is now a populist. He has been quite prominent in public affairs, and in 1891 he was elected on the populist ticket to represent Woodson county in the state legislature, where he proved a capable member, giving an earnest support to all measures which in his judgment seemed calculated to serve the ends of public good and advancement.

Leedy, John Whitnah (1849-1935) — of Le Roy, Coffey County, Kan. Born near Bellville, Jefferson Township, Richland County, Ohio, March 8, 1849. Member of Kansas state senate, 1892; Governor of Kansas, 1897-99. Died in Edmonton, Alberta, March 24, 1935. Interment at Edmonton Municipal Cemetery, Edmonton, Alberta.

JOHN W. LEEDY, the fourteenth governor of Kansas, was born near Belleville, Ohio on March 4, 1849. Due to the death of his father, his education was very limited. He worked as a farm hand and store clerk in lieu of attending school. During the Civil War, he tried to enlist, but was rejected, after his mother protested that at fourteen he was too young to fight. However, he ignored the dismissal, and joined a troop, serving until the end of the war. In 1872, Leedy changed his political allegiance from the Republican party to the Democratic party, however, when the People's party was formed in 1890, he switched parties once again. He entered politics in 1892, serving as a member of the Kansas State Senate. After the Democratic party merged with the Populist party, Leedy won the 1896 gubernatorial nomination. He was sworn into the governorship on January 11, 1897. During his tenure, a state schoolbook commission was organized, a state printing plant was established, and a state grain commission was authorized. Also, four regiments were organized for service in the Spanish-American War, and the management of the prohibition and metropolitan police laws were contested. After losing his reelection bid, Leedy left office on January 9, 1899, retiring briefly from politics. After working in the mining industry and serving as director of the Leedy Mining Company, Leedy moved to Valdez, Alaska in 1901, where he served as mayor for two years. He later became a naturalized citizen of Canada. Governor John W. Leedy died almost penniless, on March 24, 1935. The Kansas Legislature donated $1,000 to mark his grave and pay his funeral expenses. He was buried at the Edmonton Municipal Cemetery in Edmonton, Alberta.

LEEDY, John W., thirteenth governor of Kansas (1897- 1899) was born in Richland county, O., March 8, 1849. His ancestors came from Switzerland many generations ago, settling in Pennsylvania. Some of their descendants subsequently removed to Ohio. They were all members of the" religious sect called Dunkards, so distinguished for the simplicity of their manner of life, their consistent piety, strength of character and sterling integrity. Mr. Leedy was thrown upon his own resources at a tender age by the death of his father, and began the battle of life as a farm hand. His opportunities for obtaining an education were extremely limited ; the rudiments obtained by attendance at the public schools a few months, during the winter seasons, covered the whole course of his instruction. In 1804, at the age of fifteen, he attempted to enlist in the Federal service. in a company of volunteers then leaving Richland county for the army of the Potomac, but on account of his age and the protest of his mother he was not accepted. He remained with the company, however, and participated in the campaigns and battles of the regiment to which it was assigned until the close of the war. After his return, in 1865, he went to Piercetou, Ind., where for three years he was engaged as clerk iu a store. This occupation prove! too confining; his health failed, aiid he was compelled to seek employment of a different nature. In 1868 he went to Carlinsville, 111., where he obtained work upon a farm, and continued in this employment for five years. Having improved the opportunities that were afforded him, and saved his small earnings, at the close of this term of labor, with health renewed, he was able to purchase a small fann und begin business on his own account. In 1875 he was married to Sarah J. Boyd, of Frederickstown, O., and in 1880 removed to Coffey county, Kan. He prospered for a time here at farming and stock-raising, and accumulated a competence ; but later met with business reverses, and iu settlement with his creditors turned over to them all the property he possessed. Gov. Leedy was reared a Republican, but joined the Democracy in 1872 and affiliated with that party until the birth of the People's party, or Populists, when he cast in his fortunes with that organization, and began his successful political career. He was elected state senator for the fifteenth senatorial district in 1892, and became a conspicuous figure iu that body. He had charge of the Australian ballot bill in the senate, and, as its champion, secured its passage in its präsent form. He has been a consistent advocate of the various reforms that have, from time to time, been put forth by his party, and has ably contended for state regulation and control of railroad rates and corporations. He was elected governor of Kansas in 1896. His home is at Lawrence, Kan.

JW Life and Times

1896 - 1910 , Whitecourt Alberta Canada

One of the more interesting characters to arrive was Governor J. W. Leedy of Kansas, with his wife and family, daughters Clara Leedy and Alice, with her husband Walter White. Mr. Leedy had been elected governor of Kansas in 1896 on a monetary reform populist ticket. As the Whitecourt history book Sagitawah Saga relates, the U.S. populist ticket resembled social credit, which later formed the government of Alberta for many years.

Mr. Leedy later was later elected Vice President of the United Farmers of Alberta (U.F.A), which heavily influenced the policy of Alberta's early Liberal government. The U.F. A. eventually formed a political wing and became the government of Alberta in the 1920's. Mr. Leedy himself did not meet with electoral success. Still, he held steadfast to his beliefs about the necessity of his 'banking and the farmer' reforms. Its interesting that a modern day farmer now heads the Alberta Social Credit Party.

Governor Leedy has recently been honoured by having Leedy Drive named after him. The street is near the original Leedy and White homesteads, down by the golf course. As a matter of interest, a reader of this story will likely recognize several Whitecourt streets as having been named after Whitecourt pioneers.

Mr. Leedy's son-in-law, Walter White was the postal carrier for the area. He became involved in a bit of controversy when the name Whitecourt was chosen to designate the town in 1910. An official name was needed for the establishment of a post office. Apparently there was supposed to be a vote on which name to choose for the hamlet, with Saquatamau and Sagitawah being other choices. When Whitecourt was announced as the name, many early settlers were quite upset they did not get to vote on the matter. Concerned about throwing a monkey wrench into the post office approval process, residents reluctantly accepted the new name. Two Whites are listed on the Whitecourt Legion Honour Roll as having served in WWI.

Travel time from Edmonton to Whitecourt varied with the weather, but the condition of the roads can be surmised by the fact it took four weeks for the White family to make the trip. The Leedys were close behind, and had their wagon careen out of control down a hill for a couple of hundred feet, before tipping and spilling its contents.

Leedy, John W., governor of the State of Kansas from 1897 to 1899 was born in Richland county, Ohio, March 8, 1849. His parents were members of the Dunkard church, and his early years were passed under the strict discipline of that religious faith. While still in his boyhood he was thrown on his own resources by the death of his father, and began his career as a farm hand. In 1864, when in his fifteenth year, he tried to enlist in a military company that was forming in his native county, but owing to his youth and the protests of his mother he was rejected. He followed the company to the front, however, and remained with it until the close of the war. In 1865 he went to Pierceton, Ind., where he was employed as a clerk in a store for about three years. At the end of that time, preferring outdoor life, he went to Macoupin county, Ill., and found employment on a farm near Carlinville. He remained there until 1880, when he removed to Kansas and engaged in farming near Le Roy, Coffey county. Mr. Leedy was reared in a firm belief in the tenets of the Republican party, with which he was affiliated until 1875, when he became a Democrat. When the Populist party was organized in 1890, he again changed his party allegiance, and soon came to be recognized as one of the Populist leaders in Kansas. In 1892 he was elected to the state senate, where he served until elected governor of the state in 1896. At the close of his two years' term as governor he became interested in mining operations in the vicinity of Galena. In 1901 he went to Alaska, and later located at White Court, Alberta, Can., where he still resides. In 1875, while working on the farm near Carlinville, Mr. Leedy married Miss Sarah J. Boyd of Frederickstown, Ohio, and to this union were born three children.

Leedy's Administration.—Gov. John W. Leedy, the second Populist governor of Kansas, was inaugurated at the opening of the legislative session which began at noon on Jan. 12, 1897, with Lieut.-Gov. A. M. Harvey presiding in the senate, and W. D. Street as speaker of the house. At 4 p. m. the same day Gov. Leedy's message was read to the general assembly. In his introduction he contrasted the conditions in Kansas with those in the East, as follows:

"While, according to the press of the nation's most populous metropolis, her children linger in the streets untaught, except in the lore of the pavement; unfed, except at the hand of charity; unhoused, except in the kennels they dispute with creatures scarcely less miserable, the commonwealth of Kansas rejoicing in a public school system which is the most grateful heritage we received from our fathers and the best legacy we can leave to our children, finds ample house room and school room for every Kansas child and for such straggling waifs as come to us from where penury and parsimony stalk side by side. There are no tramps in Kansas, except those birds of passage who flit by us, grim reminders of the conditions in older communities."

Referring to the report of the state treasury he showed the finances of the state to be in a healthy condition at the close of the fiscal year on June 30, 1896, when there was a balance in the treasury of $604,529.10, a bonded indebtedness of only $788,500, and a permanent school fund of $7,016,993.10.

The various state educational, charitable and penal institutions were discussed in detail, and in connection with these institutions the governor said: "A visiting board for all charitable, educational and penal institutions of the state, with power to come and go, and report abuses to the governor, would be a good thing. Several states have adopted this system of the supervision of the different institutions, in order to guard against the treatment often accorded the inmates through the neglect of the officials in charge."

He expressed his willingness to cooperate with the legislature in the establishment of such a visiting board, but no law was passed during the sessions to carry his notions into effect. The governor also recommended the abolition of the forestry stations in the western part of the state, if it could be legally done, and the discontinuance of the silk station at Peabody. The silk station was ordered to be sold, and all laws for the encouragement of silk culture were repealed, but the forestry stations were continued and an appropriation made for their benefit.

Gov. Leedy was elected as the candidate of the Populist party, one of the fundamental dogmas of which was the regulation of railroad rates by law, and it was but natural that a large part of his message should be devoted to this subject.

"The question of the regulation of transportation companies," said he, "has been one that has commanded the attention of the legislatures of the various states since railroads were first introduced. These corporations have received their charter rights from the various states, and these states naturally concluded that they had the right to regulate and control the corporations that they thus had created. This view of the case was constantly combatted by the corporations, who claimed, as they were private corporations, that they were not subject to state legislation so far as their charges were concerned, a view that they have not yet abandoned. When the courts of the states began to hold that they were public corporations, and therefore amenable to the legislatures of the states, they appealed to the Federal courts, claiming, first, that they were private corporations, and, second, that if they were quasi public corporations, the regulation of them could only be had through the Federal Congress. The courts having sustained this view, the people of the various states then demanded that Congress should pass such legislation and create such boards of control as were necessary to secure to the people their just rights in the matter. In obedience to this demand Congress eleven years ago created that subterfuge for justice called the Interstate Commission, and enacted legislation that was supposed by the people to be for the purpose of securing their rights and controlling these corporations. After eleven years of weary waiting the people are now told by this commission in its tenth annual report, just issued, that the law under which they were acting was defective and had been held by the court of last resort as inoperative and unconstitutional.

"I therefore recommend that the legislature pass a maximum freight law that will be fair to corporations and just to the people. I believe also that the board of railroad commissioners should be clearly vested with the judicial powers of a court and given the power to adjust fares and freights within the State of Kansas as they deem just, and not exceeding the maximum rate, and that their powers shall be made definite and certain, but subject to appeal to the supreme court of the state. ... If the corporations will accept such just and fair regulations, subject to review by the supreme court of the state, well and good; but if in the future, as in the past, they flock under the protecting wing of the Federal courts, where justice to the people seems not only blind, as it should be, but deaf and dumb also, then I advise the people of Kansas to seek for justice out of court. In doing so, I can only point to one route by which it can be obtained, and that is for the states west of the Mississippi river to build a road of their own to tide water by the shortest and most direct route, which will put them in a position to command the situation without getting into any complication with the railroad companies or the Federal courts."

Notwithstanding the radical utterances and plain recommendations of the governor and the fact that the People's party had a good working majority in each branch of the general assembly, no law regarding railroad rates was passed during the session. True, a bill was passed, but, for reasons which will appear later, the governor withheld his approval and it did not become a law. The session lasted from Jan. 12 to March 20, the longest in the history of the state up to this time. On Jan. 27 William A. Harris was elected United States senator, to succeed William A. Pepper, for the term beginning on March 4, 1897. Over 2,000 bills were introduced during the session, but fewer than 300 of them actually became laws. The principal acts were those relating to banking; providing for the "Australian system of voting in all elections: prohibiting sheriffs of counties and mayors of cities from appointing non-residents as deputies to preserve the peace and quell disorders, and making any person, company or corporation importing into the state any person or persons to act as peace officers liable to a fine of $10,000; removing from some 50 persons political disabilities imposed by the constitutional amendment of Nov. 5, 1867; requiring railroad companies to fence their right-of-way through farms; the antitrust law; authorizing cities to build waterworks and electric lighting plants when the people voted in favor of such; requiring all mortgages to be recorded in the county where the real estate forming the basis of the security was located; creating a text-book commission and providing for a uniform system of text-books in the public schools. i 1'

Soon after coming into office William Stryker, the superintendent of public instruction, found fault with the text-book on civil government because it defined greenbacks •; as "promises to pay money," and had the book revised defining these notes as "paper money and a legal tender." • .A.

The year "1897 was one of general prosperity in Kansas. The wheat crop was unusually large and many farmers paid off mortgages of long standing. A large oil refinery was established at Neodesha, Wilson county; gas wells were sunk at various places in the southeastern part of the state; the salt industry was greatly developed, and new factories sprang up in a large number of the principal cities and towns.

When war with Spain was declared in the spring of 1898 Kansas did not wait for a demand to be made upon her for volunteers. On April 18 a company marched to the governor's office, where the officers announced that -they were ready to be mustered into the service of the United States. Five days later came the president's call for 125,000 men, of which Kansas was required to furnish 2,230. The quota was promptly filled, and throughout the war, especially in the Philippines, the Kansas troops met every call of duty in a way that added to the military reputation of the state. (See Spanish-American War.)

In the political campaign of 1898 four tickets were presented to the voters of Kansas. A Republican state convention met at Hutchinson on June 8 and nominated William E. Stanley for governor; H. E. Richter, lieutenant-governor; George A. Clark, secretary of state; George E. Cole, auditor; Frank E. Grimes, treasurer; A. A. Godard, attorneygeneral; Frank Nelson, superintendent of public instruction; Willis J. Bailey, Congressman-at-large; William R. Smith, associate justice. The platform declared in favor of the Nicaragua canal; strengthening the navy, and liberal pension laws, and criticised Gov. Leedy's administration for its failure to carry out the pledges made prior to his election.

On the same day (June 8) the Prohibition state convention met at Emporia. William A. Pepper was nominated for governor; Robert T. Black, lieutenant-governor; J. B. Garton, secretary of state; Horace Hurley, auditor; John Biddison, treasurer; Mrs. R. N. Buckner, superintendent of public instruction; Mont Williams, Congressman-at-large. In addition to the customary declarations regarding the evils of the liquor traffic, the platform contained the following: "We regard civil government as an ordinance of God, and recognize the Lord Jesus Christ as King of Kansas, and therefore believe that the administration of civil affairs should be in harmony with the law and in His spirit."

On June 15 the Populist state convention assembled at Topeka and the Democratic state convention at Atchison. A conference committee of the two parties recommended the renomination of the entire fusion ticket elected in 1896, to-wit: Governor, John W. Leedy; lieutenant-governor, A. M. Harvey; secretary of state, W. E. Bush; auditor, W. H. Morris; treasurer, D. H. Hefflebower; attorney-general, L. C. Boyle; superintendent of public instruction, William Stryker; Congressman-at-large, J. D. Botkin.

The Social labor party, a new factor in Kansas politics, entered the arena with the following ticket: Governor, Caleb Lipscomb; lieutenant-governor, N. B. Arnold; secretary of state, D. O'Donnell; auditor, E. A. Cain; treasurer, W. H. Wright; attorney-general, W. L. Rose; superintendent of public instruction, Etta Semple; Congressman-atlarge, F. E. Miller; associate justice, A. A. Carnahan. The platform of this party demanded more paper money; better pay for soldiers; the breaking up of the land monopoly, and the government control of all other monopolies.

At the election in November the entire Republican state ticket was victorious, the vote for governor being as follows: Stanley, 142,292; Leedy, 134,158; Pepper, 4,092; Lipscomb, 635. The majorities received by the other Republican candidates were practically the same as that of Gov. Stanley.

During the campaign the question of regulating railroad charges by law was again widely discussed, and on Dec. 15, 1898, Gov. Leedy issued the following proclamation:

"Whereas, assurances have reached me to the effect that if the legislature shall be convened, suitable legislation for the regulation of railroad charges can be enacted, and deeming such matter of sufficient importance to justify the convening of the legislature in special session:

"Now, therefore, I, John W. Leedy, governor of the State of Kansas, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the constitution of the state, do hereby convene the legislature of the State of Kansas to meet at the capital of the state, at the hour of 4 o'clock p. m., on the 21st day of Dec, 1898."

At the appointed time the general assembly met and the two houses organized with the same presiding officers as at the regular session of the preceding year. Consequently no time was lost in effecting an organization, and the governor's message was submitted the same day. In it the governor explained the reasons for the failure of the regular session of 1897 to enact a railroad rate law. Said he: "Although the present executive and a majority of each house of the present legislature were elected under a pledge to enact a maximum rate law, when the time arrived for fulfilling that pledge the menace of a judicial decision by the highest tribunal in the land, which would make legislative regulation of railroad charges practically impossible, caused many to doubt the wisdom of attempting the promised legislation; and such difference of opinion prevailed that the executive felt called upon to withhold his approval from the compromise measure finally passed. There was then pending undetermined in the supreme court of the United States a case which involved the question whether, as to railroad legislation, the legislatures of the theoretically sovereign states should be reduced to the level of city councils or district school boards, upon the reasonableness, as well as the authority, of whose acts courts may sit in judgment. The decision of that case, announced soon after the adjournment of the legislature, fully justified the fears and anticipations of those who deemed it futile to pass a maximum rate bill; for it rendered such an enactment a mere proposal of legislation—not a law—which must be submitted to the Federal court for approval or rejection. That decision declared by that whether the rates of transportation prescribed by a legislature are reasonable is a judicial question, and that, first, a single Federal judge, and finally five Federal justices, may, upon that question, reverse and hold null the deliberate judgment of an entire legislature. "" . . . I therefore recommend that the legislature confer upon the board of railroad commissioners full judicial power to try, hear and determine all questions as to the reasonableness or unreasonableness of every charge made by a railroad company for services rendered wholly within this state in the transportation of property; that they be authorized to try, determine and enter judgment declaring what are, at the time of rendering the decision, reasonable charges for the transportation of property between different points over each and all railroad lines in this state; and also what are reasonable charges for switching, demurrage, and all other charges imposed by them from the time of the reception of each and every kind and class of freight to its delivery to the consignee, etc. . . . The commissioners should be given abundant power to carry their judgments into execution, and to see that the law which prohibits the companies from taking more than the reasonable rate determined by them is enforced, and to this end the legislature should provide an attorney for the board, whose special duty it shall be to appear wherever necessary to protect the interests of the state in the enforcement of the law."

Gov. Leedy also recommended that the people be given the right to recover damages from such railroad companies as should persist in exacting greater rates than those fixed by the board as reasonable. His recommendations were generally followed by the legislature, which abolished the old board of railroad commissioners and created in lieu thereof a "court of visitation." This court was to consist of three judges, to be appointed by the governor on the first Monday in April, 1899, and these judges were to serve until their successors should be elected by the people at the general election in 1900. Each member of the court was to receive a salary of $2,500 a year and the term of office was fixed at four years. The court was given power and jurisdiction throughout the state to try and determine all questions relating to railroad rates, switching and demurrage charges, etc.; to apportion charges between connecting roads; to classify freight; to require the construction and maintenance of depots, stock yards, switches, and other facilities for public convenience; to compel reasonable and impartial train and car service for patrons; to regulate crossings and intersections of railroads; to prescribe rules concerning the movement of trains; "to restrict railroad corporations to operations within their charter powers, prevent oppressive exercise thereof, and compel the performance of all the duties required by law." In short, the court was given a general supervisory power over practically all the operations of the railroad companies doing business in Kansas, and to accomplish this end power was conferred on the court to summon juries, as a court of equity, in any case or matter brought before it for consideration.

Other acts passed by the legislature at the special session provided for the abolishment of the boards of police commissioners in cities of the first class, and the establishment in their place of a fire and police commission which should have control of both the fire and police departments; amended the election laws in the matter of printing the ballots; created a state labor society; transferred to the court of visitation the regulation of telegraph companies; and provided certain regulations concerning the increase of the capital stock of corporations or the consolidation of two or more companies. There was also passed an act making a reduction of 40 per cent. in telegraph tolls, but it was subsequently declared unconstitutional.

The special session lasted until Jan. 9, 1899, which was the second Monday, the time specified by the state constitution for the inauguration of a new governor. Gov. Leedy's administration therefore came to an end with the extra session of the general assembly, and Gov. Stanley was inaugurated.

Personal recollections from family members:

Elizabeth (Brown) Emrie loved poetry; we still have a volume of Oliver Wendell Holmes' poems which she treasured. Also, she often clipped political speeches which she found interesting from magazines and newspapers.

After her husband Charles left, she moved from West Bend, Iowa, to Dakota City, Iowa. (This move took place some time after April 3, 1897, since she received a letter from her mother with that date in West Bend.) For a time, Elizabeth and her family lived with her parents, Wade and Rosann (Leedy) Brown. Later she lived in a house next door to her brother William O. Brown in Dakota City, and then--in the last years of her life--she lived with her daughter Helen C. (Emrie) Blumer in a farm northeast of Livermore, Iowa, where she died. The cause of death is listed as "coronary sclerosis."

Obituary - W.O. Brown

William Orville Brown, eldest son of Wade Hampton and Rozanne Leedy Brown, was born in a log cabin December 25th, 1858, at Pierceton, Washington Township, Kosciusko county, Indiana.

He died of apoplexy May 19th, 1929, at Dakota City, Iowa, survived by his widow, Mary Smith, and three children, Jane Elizabeth Brown Schuhmacher, Anderson, Indiana, Edith Brown Heath, Long Beach, California, and Theodore Brown of Dakota City, Iowa. Also three grandchildren, Margaret Anne and Joseph Keith Schuhmacher and Mary Jean Heath.

His surviving brothers and sisters are: Sarah Hawkins and Elizabeth Emrie of Dakota City, A.C. Brown of Estherville, Iowa, and John Leedy Brown of Hollywood, California.

As a child he was baptized and reared in the Presbyterian church. He became an active member of the Unitarian church of Humboldt, Iowa, when past middle life. The funeral services were held from that church, Wednesday afternoon, May 23rd, with the Reverend Oswald E. Helsing officiating.

The church was filled with relatives and friends during the simple service.

Mr. Brown's favorite hymn, "When the Mists Have Cleared Away", was sung by a quartet. Mrs. Sadie Hook Passig read "Crossing the Bar." The short sermon by Rev. Helsing, the pastor, was followed by a song "In the Garden" by W. H. Hopley.

He was a member of the Humboldt Blue Lodge of Masons and the Modern Woodmen of America at the time of his death.

Out of town relatives and friends who attended the final rites included Mr. and Mrs. Amos J. Schumacher and children, Margaret Anne and Joseph Keith of Anderson, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brown and daughter, Hazel, of Estherville, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. James and Mr. and Mrs. Millard Keith Brown of Eagle Grove, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Tinkham, Miss Grace Tinkham and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tinkham of Fort Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blumer of Livermore, and W. B. West of Long Beach, California; also Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McDermid.

The pallbearers were Paul Emrie, nephew of Mr. Brown, and his old friends, George Bicknell, Clement W. Garfield, John Berkhimer, Charles J. Nelson and Joseph Berkhimer.

Thursday morning the earthly remains were taken to Des Moines for cremation, according to the wish of the deceased. The ashes will be placed in Union cemetery near the graves of his parents and a beloved sister, Margaret, who died in infancy.

William Orville Brown, better known as Will or W. O. Brown, was of good ancestry.

His father, Wade Hampton Brown, was claimed to be a descendant of the royal line of Wales and of the Tudor kings of England.

His mother's mother, Elizabeth Keith Leedy, was of Noble lineage. Among her forebears, was a Sir William Keith, a Scot, who served as Deputy Governor General under William Penn in his colony, Pennsylvania.

Elizabeth Keith, W. O. Brown's grandmother, was born at Coffee Run, Pennsylvania. She became the wife of John Leedy, a well to do farmer of Richland county, Ohio.

John Leedy, called "Big John" Leedy for obvious reasons, was of German Swiss stock. His name was properly spelled Leidi. He was born in Maryland.

W. O. Brown's ancestor figured in the Revolutionary war and the war of 1812. His father, Wade Hampton Brown, on account of poor teeth, was not accepted for service in the Civil War. He did what he could, however. At a sacrifice for he was poor and had a family to provide for, he gave bounty money to a man to fight in his place.

Wade Hampton Brown was not an aggressive man. He was, however, an intelligent man. He read much and with discrimination. He was an independent thinker. He talked little but what he did say was frank to the point of tactlessness and worth heeding.

His wife, like her father John Leedy, was an energetic, practical person.

Wade Brown brought his family from Indiana to Humboldt County, Iowa, in 1870. An eighty acre tract of land was bought in Norway township, Section 6.

The family waited six years before making a home upon it. They lived in Dakota City during this time, where Will Brown attended the common school.

Upon maturity the Brown Brothers added to the original purchase of land in Norway Township. Land was also bought in Palo Alto county, Iowa, with a down payment carried by trapping. The father, Wade Brown, was a far seeing man and encouraged his sons in these ventures.

William O. Brown was married on Christmas Day, 1891, at Marathon, Iowa, to Mary M. Smith, popularly called May Smith, daughter of Henry D. and Jennie Barr Smith. His home life was remarkably happy. He was not only a wise, devoted husband and father, he was also companionable.

W.O. Brown suffered a sun stroke in his late thirties and was thereafter unable to engage in active farming.

He owned and operated a store in Bradgate for six years and for two years lived on his farm in Palo Alto county.

From 1908 until his death he lived in Dakota City, except for occasional winters in Florida or California.

Wherever he lived Mr. Brown took an active part in school and civic affairs. He was public spirited. He was competent. His integrity in public as well in private life was never open to question. He was an ardent Democrat.

He was a well-balanced man. He was a practical idealist. His social side was well developed, yet he liked to be alone enough to think his problems through. He did some serious reading daily, but never got his opinions out of a book ready made. He stood for the substantial virtues, yet his sense of humor kept him from priggishness. He never shirked a disagreeable duty, but he never bored his friends with a recital of the unpleasant details. He was philosophical. If his corn crop was drowned out, he rejoiced that his oats crop was good.

Like his father, he was frank in his speech, but never indulged in petty gossip or listened to it and never troubled himself about what other people might think about it.

He applied the golden rule, but went farther. He was careful to meet his own obligations of every sort yet he was a lenient creditor.

In an assuming way he was a sincerely religious man. He worked out for himself a faith that served his needs and he lived up to his faith.

Ariel Cobb Brown

Birth: Apr. 20, 1862

Indiana, USA

Death: Aug. 12, 1936

Kossuth County

Iowa, USA

A.C. Brown, 73, of Estherville, well know retired banker, was almost instantly killed yesterday morning when his car was struck by the Northwestern passenger at the crossing near Burt on highway 169. His car, a five passenger sedan, was struck full in the side by the gas electric train and carried across the cattle guard before the slowly moving train could stop. The train had just left the station and had not gained speed. The crossing was clear and Highwayman C. B. Benedict, who was driving behind Mr. Brown, stated in the coroner's hearing that he could not understand how Brown alone in his car, failed to see the oncoming train.

Mr. Brown's chest was crushed and he sustained a very bad head injury over the eye. Although alive when extricated from the wrecked auto, he passed away before he could be moved. Trainmen and the baggage man said that they had thought that Mr. Brown had slowed up for the crossing and so did not stop for him. Marks in the road would indicate that he had headed for the ditch but had swung back into the highway again. An infrequent driver, Mr. Brown, had in recent years made very few out of town trips.

The deceased man while not a pioneer of Estherville had lived here with his family for thirty-six years, coming here from West Bend in 1900 to open a wholesale implement building with Walter Crowell. The two story frame building which the firm built in 1899 and occupied stood at the corner of Lincoln and Eighth where the Champlain Oil station now stands and they later built the brick building across the street now occupied by J. T. Johnston. Here the firm established the first wholesale grocery house. Later Mr. Brown was identified with Fred Richmond in the real estate business. It is as a banker, however, that Mr. Brown was most widely known. He owned controlling interest at different times in banking institutions at West Bend, Ottesen, Iowa, Montrey, Ormsby, and Chokio, Minnesota, and for about five years in Chowchilla, Cal. The crash following the world war swept away most of the modest fortune that Mr. Brown had accumulated but he was comfortably located with his wife in their lovely stone home surrounded by a number of acres of land at the east edge of Estherville and found profit and enjoyment in feeding livestock and looks after his farm property.

His keen but kindly and humorous advice will be missed by hundreds of friends for his death leaves a gap in the community hard to fill. Mr. Brown was born seventy-three years ago April 20, in Sierceton, Ind. In 1888 he was married to Miss Lulu Gullixson in Humboldt county. Besides his wife, Mr. Brown leaves to mourn his sudden passing two sons, Lee of Gilmore City and Neil of this city, two daughters, Hazel of Estherville and Mrs. Wm. Hagens of Casper, Wyo.

Funeral services will be held on Friday afternoon at two, at the home on East Lincoln street. Interment will be made in Oak Hill cemetery.

Mr. Brown was a member of the Masonic Order, a former member of the Esdraelon commandry. He had served on the Estherville city council. (Unknown Estherville, IA, paper, August 12, 1936)

A.C. Brown Killed at Burt Today

Pioneer Here in Business, Retired Some 12 Years Ago

The citizens of Estherville were certainly shocked this morning when it was announced on the street that our pioneer citizen, A. C. Brown, had been killed in an accident at Burt.

There were no details of the accident at first. Neil Brown rushed home to be with his mother to whom he knew the shock would be terrible. He remained with her until his wife and his brother arrived, then left for Burt.

We called the editor at Burt, as information was difficult to obtain. This is the story we received from the editor of the Burt Monitor, on the second call after they had checked up on the accident.

Mr. Brown was driving south on the highway. He was about to cross the Northwestern tracks. He evidently noticed the train pulled by a gas car approaching. He started to take to the ditch but evidently changed his mind, thinking he might get over the tracks and the gas car hit his Chevrolet in the side.

The car was badly wrecked and Mr. Brown was jammed so hard into the steering gear with such force he was injured internally. He died minutes late from internal hemorrhages, without recovering consciousness. Our report says there was but little in the way of details to tell as it was a railroad crossing accident that was not decidedly different than all of them.

A.C. Brown and Walter Crowell, who were in the farm implement business in West Bend decided to come to Estherville in 1900 to open a wholesale and retail farm machinery business. They employed Ford Connolly to come here and get ready to open the business. He came in March and Mr. Brown moved here in the early summer.

Brown and Crowell, as the firm was known, erected the big frame building on the corner of Lincoln and Eighth streets. The building was two story and was used for farm machinery only. Later they purchased the wholesale grocery with others in what is now the J. T. Johnston building across the street from the implement company. They remained in business there for many years.

When the editors of this paper decided to build their building at its present location we officed with Brown and Crowell during the construction period. They were both excellent gentlemen and we cultivated a warm friendship for both. The senior editor and Mr. Brown became close friends during that time.

Mr. Brown's remains were taken to the funeral parlors in Burt where they were taken from by the local undertakers.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Sillge who had been visiting the past few days at Webster City were at the scene of the accident immediately after it occurred and they were taken to Burt to identify Mr. Brown.

Mrs. Sillge says Mr. Brown had a bad gash over his eye. That his lip was cut and he was bleeding from the nose and ears. This was caused because his chest was badly crushed by the steering gear. The accident occurred at nine o'clock.

George Thompson and Herbert Allen left at noon for Burt to look after the car and such details as were necessary.

No arrangements have been made for the funeral services.

Estherville is grieved over the loss of our pioneer business man and friend. (Estherville Enterprise, Estherville, IA, August 12, 1936)

A.C. Brown is Killed Near Burt

This morning's Des Moines Register carried an account of the serious accident which befell A. C. Brown at Burt.

We believe this refers to Mr. Brown who conducted a bank in West Bend many years ago. The article is as follows:

A.C. Brown, 71, retired Estherville, Ia., banker, was killed when a North Western train struck his auto on a crossing north of Burt Wednesday. Highway Patrolman C. B. Benedict, who was driving behind Mr. Brown on Highway 169, said he saw the crash and could not understand why Brown failed to see the train. Mr. Brown, a Mason, is a former Estherville city council member. Mr. Brown is survived by his wife, two sons and two daughters, including Hazel Brown, formerly a women's department writer for the Des Moines Tribune. He was driving alone. (West Bend Journal, West Bend, IA, August 13, 1936)

A.C. Brown Is Killed By Train at Burt

Lives Ten Minutes After Car is Hit at Crossing

A.C. Brown, 74, Estherville was killed yesterday morning when his car was struck by the Northwestern passenger car at the No. 169 grade crossing just north of Burt.

Brown suffered a severe frontal fracture of the skull, broken ribs, and possible ruptures of spleen, kidneys and liver.

That a collision would be unavoidable was seen by the engineer, and the car was stopped only two lengths from the crossing after the collision.

Car Struck Broadside

It is believed that Brown did not see the approaching train till he was almost upon it. The engineer noticed that Brown swerved his car slightly towards the ditch, then apparently changed his mind and attempted to beat the train to the crossing. This took place within 100 feet of the crossing.

The Brown car was struck broadside, and it skidded into the ditch, but it did not turn over. After the train was stopped Engineer Billings, Baggage man L. N. Cairy, and Conductor J. T. Callopy, all of Eagle Grove, took Brown from his car. He was bleeding from a head fracture, but was still breathing, though unconscious.

Death in Ten Minutes

The next car after Brown's was driven by Dr. C. E. Douglas, White Cloud, Mich., who stopped, gave first aid and stayed with Brown till he died ten minutes after the crash.

The body was placed in the baggage compartment of the train car, which was backed to Burt. County Attorney McMahon, Sheriff Carl Dahlhauser, and Coroner R. A. Evans were called, and after the train crew had made report the car was permitted to leave.

The train first left at 9:43 a.m., and it returned at 10:11. The collision took place at 9:47.

Body to Estherville

C. B. Benedict of the highway patrol, who had left Algona shortly after 9 o'clock on his regular travels, reached the scene of the accident before the train had left and took charge of body and papers till arrival of the Algona officials.

The body was first placed in the baggage room of the depot, but thence was later taken to the Chipman funeral room. Yesterday afternoon it was removed to Estherville.

Mr. Brown is survived by his wife, two sons, Neil and Lee, and two daughters, Hazel, at home, and a daughter at Casper, Wyo. Hazel was formerly editor of the woman's section of the Des Moines Sunday Register.

Once Lived at West Bend

It is believed that Brown was on his way to Gilmore City, the home of his son, Lee, where he and the son had a joint business interest.

Mr. Brown lived at West Bend at one time, but moved to Estherville many years ago. He retired some years ago.

The car was badly wrecked. The front end was caved in, and the engine pushed far to the right. Tires were torn from three wheels, and two wheels were bent beyond repair. Glass in the car was of the "safety" variety. The body was not badly cut. (Kossuth County Advance, Algona, IA, August 13, 1936)
