Notes for Thomas Lamar Nuchols (32856):

Thomas Lamar received a good education, and attended Maryville College, playing on their first football team. He was heard to say that he was on the only Maryville team to beat U.T. He was also a Justice of the Peace. Soon after his and Susan's first house burned, one which he had built, a couple came to be married. Thomas was in the bed, while Susan was mending his only pair of breeches. The couple had to wait until Thomas was presentable!

He was a man of many interests. He taught school in a one-room school house, and could add a column of figures in his head faster than any of his students with pencil and paper. He served five terms in the Tennessee State Legislature, and was instrumental in legislating the preservation of the Sam Houston School House.

At one time, Thomas owned a loan company, and another time, Tarvin Pulverizing Company, a manufacturing firm. He went to southern Texas on a land promotion deal, and bought a farm of some fifty acres, in this semi-tropical part of the country. His younger son, James, took over this farm, raising winter vegetables and tropical fruits.

Thomas was a leader in Baptist Churches in Blount County. He was Chairman of the Building Committee for the First Baptist Church Education Building on Depot Street. He was a Charter Member of Monte Vista Baptist Church, and Chairman of their Building Committee.

Thomas developed a real estate company, buting and selling properties as well as retaining rental property. He built the building at 123 W. Broadway, for the Roses Stores. He later gave the building in equal shares to his children. Thomas, and his wife, lived long and useful lives, leaving many good deeds, as well as many descendants.

Rachel Susan was born a caretaker, and had responsibility for the family at a very young age. She said that she raised her younger brother, Homer.

Her education was hit and miss. She would send her brothers and sister to school, while she cleaned house and prepared a lunch to take to them. She was a strong believer in education.

Both of her daughters, Sara and Mary, were college graduates, teaching in Blount County.

For her wedding to Thomas, Susan decorated the house with apple blossoms. She loves all plants and flowers, and every home she lived in was made lovely with them. Susan was always willing to help anyone who needed her; family, friends, or even strangers.

Around Town

"In Apple Blossom Time" fifty years ago Mr. and Mrs. Tom Nuchols were married. Sunday, they received their friends and relatives at their home in celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary and on the old fashioned mantle in the living room their children arranged their wedding photograph surrounded by masses of apple blooms, no doubt calling back many memories of their wedding day so long ago when apple blossoms were the only flowers used for the wedding decorations. The Nuchols home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with masses of gift flowers. Mrs. Nuchols wore a dress of powder blue and her corsage was golden throated orchids, a far cry from the apple blossoms of long ago. Mrs. Edgar Gates, sister of Mrs. Nuchols, and Miss May Nuchols, Mr. Nuchols' sister, presided at the tea table. About 250 friends and relatives called during the afternoon.

JOHN D. LEEDY

J. D. Leedy was the first man to land in Nome from the steamer Garonne in the spring of 1899, and the steamer Garonne was the first vessel to arrive at Nome from from the states. Mr. Leedy's description of the handful of men found in the new camp is both interesting and instructive. At this time Nome had the atmosphere of an unusual environment. The inhabitants had lived through the long winter without a suitable or adequate food supply, and there were a few minor cases of scurvy. Among the inhabitants who had spent the winter in Nome was a brother of Mr. Leedy. When the subject of this sketch swung over the rail of the Garonne and descended by a rope to a home made dory he carried with him two valises; one filled with fresh fruits and other with fresh vegetables. He describes the gratification of the boatman when he was presented with an onion, and how he ate it like he was eating an apple. The snow had not entirely left the ground, and the only log cabin on the present site of Nome was the one occupied by G. W. Price, the deputy recorder of the district. A few tents in which two or three lines of business were conducted, completed the ensemble of the town.

Mr. Leedy had acquired considerable experience as a miner in the Black Hills and in British Columbia, and he immediately devoted himself to the work of acquiring mining property by lease or appropriation. During this year and the years that followed he prospected and mined with varying success. He staked the first quartz claim ever staked on the peninsula. This quartz property is at the head of Nome Gulch and Mr. Leedy believes that it contains the possibilities of a mine. He was employed by the Alaska Banking and Safe Deposit Company as an expert to investigate properties offered as collateral for loans. Mr. Leedy has the record of never having advised a ban by which the company lost a dollar.

Mr. Leedy worked faithfully and waited patiently, but his opportunity did not come until the season of 1904. He and H. T. Harding had often canvassed the proposition of a ditch to supply water to the valuable mining claims lying on the southerly slope of Anvil Mountain. These numerous talks finally crystallized in the initial work of the Seward Ditch, which diverts water from Nome River near Dorothy Creek, and will deliver water for use on Dexter Hill under a pressure of 100 inches. With the cooperation of Dr. Cabell Whitehead and Henry Bratnaber this ditch project was amply financed during the winter of 1904-'05, and with the arrival of the first fleet of steamers in the spring of 1905 the work of perfecting this important enterprise was begun.

J. D. Leedy was born in Fredericktown, Knox County, Ohio, February 4, 1865. His father was a lumber manufacturer, who moved to Trenton, Missouri, when the son was an infant. When he was eleven years old J. D. Leedy went to the Black Hills. In addition to a public school education he has been a student in the State School of Mines in Rapid City, S. D. He began the work of mining at an early age, striking his first drill when he was fourteen years old. He left the Black Hills country in 1889 and went to Seattle, and ever since that date he has mined in British Columbia, Washington and Alaska.

Mr. Leedy married Nellie G. Norton in Nome September 16, 1899. His education has been practical. He has learned by work, and his judgment of mines and mining is accurate and reliable. He is a man of big brain capacity and the possessor of that most excellent quality and estimable trait of human character-honesty.

Notes for HELEN CONSTANCE EMRIE:

Mother (Helen C. Emrie) did not have a carefree childhood. Her father left the family when she was about three years old, and her mother became the sole support of the children--my mother and her two older brothers.

However, Grandmother's father, Wade Brown, helped to provide the family with a home, and Grandmother's brothers probably also helped when needs were greatest.

Helen and her brothers had to work as soon as they could find jobs. I recall that mother said she worked for the newspaper, setting type, when she was about 14 years old. Nevertheless, she was able to finish high school (1911) and add summer school training as a teacher. She taught in country schools in Humboldt County and also in South Dakota before she returned to Dakota City.

After she returned to Dakota City, she taught in the Red Brick Schoolhouse. Here she met Paul Blumer, who was principal of the school, and they were married in January 1918. They moved to the farm in Sherman Township, Kossuth County, Iowa, soon after.

George E. Leedy. One of the oldest and best known families of Union township is that of Leedy, which has been identified with this part of Miami county since the early days, and its members have always borne and performed their duties and obligations to both themselves and the community.

Mrs. W. H. Leedy, mother of George Leedy is one of the oldest residents of Miami county. She came here from New York State in 1839, having been born in that state July 6, 1834. Her father was George H. Hill, and her mother whose maiden name was Sarah Cool, was a daughter of Christoplier of New Jersey. The family of Mr. Leedy first settled in Union township of Miami county. At that time the country was all in a woods, and the school she attended was two miles away. Her father and mother both died on the old homestead. She married William Harrison Leedy, who had the distinction of being the first white child born in Union township. Mr. Leedy for twelve years was known as a teacher in Union township, and also taught one year in Peru township. For fifteen years he served- as justice of the peace, and was always a man of influence and value in community affairs. He had a good education for those times, although as a boy he had obtained instructions at great disadvantages, it being necessary to walk all the way from Deedsville to Peru. He went into the county seat to attend school on Monday, and returned home on Friday. Mrs. Leedy's mother's people are all buried in Union township. Their first home in this section was a log cabin, but as her father was a carpenter, he soon got the material and erected a frame house which was the first in that vicinity. Part of that house is still standing on the old farm. William H. Leedy died in 1879, in Deedsville. Mrs. Leedy survives him and is one of the venerable women of the county, aged 80 years. She saw the corner stone laid at the building of the first courthouse in Peru, and she remembers the town when the east end was nothing but a swamp. To remedy this condition she remembers how a great quantity of dirt was hauled down from the hills and piled upon the low ground in the east end of town. Her memory also goes back to include the days of Indians, in Miami county, a number of them having come about her father's home when she was a child. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Leedy were the parents of five children, whose names are as follows: Sevilla, who married Orlando Keever, and who is the mother of one daughter, Pauline; Olive, who married Levi Karns, and has the following children, Ethel Florence, married to Harvey Norris, Cleo Verle, married to Jacob Norris, and Celester; Mary M., who died at the age of twelve years; George Elbert, who married Adelia Sheaffer; and one that died in infancy.

Mr. George Leedy, who was born and reared and has spent all his life as a successful agriculturist in Union township, was married October 1, 1893, to Miss Adelia Sheaffer. The maiden name of her mother was Sarah Cowgill. Mr. Leedy and family have lived on their present home for more than twenty-five years. He and his wife are the parents of three children, namely: Harrison Keith, born October 26, 1894; Charles Calvin, born August 14, 1897; and Sylvia Jane, born December 12, 1902.

Mr. Leedy and family attend the United Brethren Church. He is affiliated with the Masons at Macy and the Odd Fellows at Deedsville, and also the Ancient Order of Gleaners at Perrysburg, Ind. He is well known in public affairs in his local township, and has the complete confidence of his fellow citizens in his judgment and integrity. In 1908 he was elected to the responsible office of trustee, taking office in 1909, and his term being for four years. He has always been a staunch Republican until recently, and is now a Progressive. He has in charge a nice farm estate, formerly the old George Hill Farm, and has rebuilt the house and barn, and has done much to improve and make the place profitable.

CHARLES S. ALBRIGHT, embalmer and undertaker of Winchester, is a native of Darke county, Ohio, and was born December 19, 1863; he is a son of Henderson L. and Catherine (Leedy) Albright. Henderson L. answered the call for 100 day men in the early part of the late war, and after his return engaged in farming until 1886, and then in undertaking, under the firm name of Ford & Albright, until 1887, when he retired to private life. His family consisted of the following children:

Clarence B. Leedy. The first county attorney of Ellis County after its organization and statehood was Clarence B. Leedy. His father some year before had been the first postmaster of one of the new towns in Dewey County, and the town was named in his honor, Leedey, with only a slight modification of the name. These two facts indicate that members of the Leedy family have been exceptionally active in that section of Oklahoma, and they have been a fine type of those worthy characters who in future years will be credited as empire builders. Clarence B. Leedy is one of the most successful lawyers of Ellis County, lives at Arnett, and has been quite a man of affairs for a number of years.

Though he is still on the lee side of middle age, he came into close touch with pioneer conditions at his birth, since his birthplace was a log house on a farm in Fulton County, Indiana. There he first saw the light of day September 9, 1875. His parents were Amos and Sarah C. (Hunter) Leedy. Amos Leedy was born June 6, 1850, near Akron, Ohio, a son of Abraham A. and Elizabeth E. (Leedy) Leedy, both of whom were natives of Pennsylvania. Abraham was born in 1819 and died in 1901, and his wife was born March 25, 1826, and is now living at Tiosa, Indiana.

In 1859 Amos Leedy moved to Fulton County, Indiana, and in 1882 took his family to Illinois, and from there came on to Oklahoma in 1898. While not one of the earliest pioneers of the original Oklahoma, he was one of the most active of the early settlers in Dewey County, where he established his home on Government land. A part of that land has since been covered by the thriving Town of Leedey and his name was fitly accepted as the name of the incipient village. As already stated, he was the first postmaster when the office was established in 1899 and held that position until 1902. He is now living quietly retired at Leedey and the major part of his activities as a business man have been performed as a farmer. In 1873 Amos Leedy married Miss Sarah C. Hunter, daughter of Jacob Hunter, who was a native of New York. She was born March 20, 1854, in Marshall County, Indiana, and died in Piatt County, Illinois, October 20, 1895. She was a very religious woman, an active member of the German Baptist Church, and divided her time and interests between her home and family and her church duties. She became the mother of ten children, five sons and five daughters, namely: Clarence B.; Tempy Ann; Ira, deceased; Harley G.; Aaron A.; Charles A.; Dora; Hassie; Elizabeth E.; and a daughter, the fifth in age, who died in infancy. On January 20, 1905, at Independence, Kansas, Amos Leedy married his present wife. She was born in Kansas. In 1883 Mr. Amos Leedy was regularly ordained a minister of the German Baptist Church, and for a great many years has performed the part of a leader in church work.

Clarence B. Leedy was about seven years old when the family moved to Illinois, and he acquired his early education in Piatt County of that state. He attended college at the Central Normal College in Danville, Indiana, where he took a course in law and graduated in 1898. On May 12, 1898, Mr. Leedy enlisted in Company A of the Sixteenth United. States Infantry for service in the Spanish-American war, which had broken out only a few weeks previous. He was sent to Cuba and took part in the noted battle of San Juan Hill on July 1, 1898. In that historic engagement he was wounded though not seriously. He was discharged with a record of "excellent" in character and conduct.

During the years 1899-1900 Mr. Leedy was a traveling representative for the Chicago Journal and Herald. In June, 1900, he joined his family in Oklahoma, and his first venture here was to locate a claim near Leedey in old Day County. He served as deputy county attorney of Day County one term. In 1904 he was appointed assistant county attorney of old Day County, and located for private practice at Grand.

In September, 1907, Mr. Leedy was elected county attorney of Ellis County on the republican ticket. The county had been created by the constitutional convention, and he was the first to fill that important office in the local civil government. He filled it for 3½ years and since his term of office as county attorney has expired he has refused to accept any office, and has enjoyed the largest law practice of any attorney in Western Oklahoma. Mr. Leedy is said to have the largest law library in Ellis County, and is a thoroughly informed and skillful attorney. He is active as a republican, and has been a member of the central and state committees since 1901. Fraternally he is identified with the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and has passed all the chairs in his home lodge.

On February 2, 1902, at Leedey, he married Miss Mabel Ann Foster, daughter of Alexander W. and Clara (Sharp) Foster. Her parents were both born in Cass County, Missouri, and that was also her birthplace on July 4, 1882. Mr. and Mrs. Leedy have a fine family of eight children, five sons and three daughters, namely: Mabel Ethel, born March 16, 1906, and died January 4, 1905; Charles B., born November 24, 1904; Eva, born July 10, 1906; Raymond, born February 18, 1908; Darwin, born February 16, 1910; Clara, born September 30, 1912; Frank, born June 12, 1914; and Eldon Leedy, born February 26, 1916.

In the early 1930's, Leedy's Orchard Park Market just outside Lexington offered a resting place for the frugal traveler. It was so named as John Leedy would let people camp or park in the orchard behind the store free of charge. It was good for business. He sold gas, oil, meat, canned goods, ice cream, produce in season or about anything else a traveler would need.

For entertainment there was a bit of poker, beer, liquor, punch boards and a slot machine. Free outdoor movies were shown out back in summer. When built, the store was 100 feet or so across the line in Washington Township. Troy Township and Lexington were voted bone dry. Washington was wide open. Quite a few Lexington folks traveled to Orchard Park.

William Leedy, farmer, stock raiser and fruit grower of Arlington township, has through hard and persistent labor won a place for himself among the successful farmers of his community, and is now the owner of an excellent tract of one hundred and fifteen acres. With no other advantages than a progressive mind, a determination to succeed and inherent ability as an agriculturist, he started out to establish himself in a profitable occupation, and the success which he has attended his efforts is well deserved. William Leedy was born September 3, 1866, in the state of Indiana, and is a son of Henry C. and Mary (Lawrence) Leedy, the former born in Indiana and the latter in Pennsylvania.

The Leedy family was established in Michigan in 1865, when the parents brought their children to Arlington township, buying one hundred and sixty acres of land. Mr. Leedy was for some time engaged in the mercantile business at Bangor, but sold out and for two years was located in Kansas and later in Iowa. On his return to Michigan he opened a market, which he operated in conjunction with a livery business for three years. For three or four years following he operated a part of the old homestead, and he then purchased fifty acres of timber land and worked the timber into lumber, having built a sawmill on the place. Eventually he purchased seventy acres, moving his sawmill to the new land, and from time to time added to his property until he was the owner of three hundred and twenty-two acres of well cultivated land. He died June 26, 1899, and his widow is now living at the family home in Columbia township. Henry C. and Mary Leedy had eleven children, as follows: Sarah, who is deceased; William; Jacob, living in Kalamazoo; James, a resident of Arlington; Viola, the wife of Fred Goodwin, of Columbia township; Cora and Anna, who died in infancy; Daniel, a farmer of Arlington township; Alice, the wife of Arthur Lee, of Arlington; Mattie, the wife of Emory Hathaway, of Arlington township; and Earl, who resides at home.

William Leedy was reared to manhood on the home farm, and when he was eighteen years of age he went to northern Michigan and for a year worked in a lumber camp. On his return he took up farming, and he and his brother Jacob raised a mortgage of three hundred dollars on sixty-six acres of their father's farm. After a few years William Leedy purchased his brother's interest in the land, and later purchased fifty acres and eventually thirty-three acres more, and he now has one hundred and fifteen acres of some of the best land in Arlington township. He has made numerous improvements on this land, and can point with pride to as fine a set of buildings as can be found in the township. A man of Mr. Leedy's abilities is always a valued citizen, and he has many warm friends and admirers in his community.

On April 5, 1883, Mr. Leedy was married to Miss Tamson Pathie, and she died leaving two children: Annie, the wife of Clifford Daniels, of Waverly; and John, who is deceased. Mr. Leedy was married (second) December 8, 1904, to Miss Edith Weikel, daughter of Levi and Martha (Curtis) Weikel, and two children have been born to them: Glen Levi and Orville Clay. Mrs. Leedy's father was born in Indiana and her mother in Michigan, and both are now living in Columbia township. They had four children: Edith, who married Mr. Leedy; Ellen, the wife of Fred Corden, of Elkhart, Indiana; George, residing in Columbia township; and Perry, who also lives in that township.

Mr. Leedy is independent in his political views, voting for the man rather than the party. His religious faith is that of the Methodist church, and he is known as a liberal supporter of the religious and charitable movements.

Springfield Man Found Dead in Parked Car

Springfield, IL, Oct. 12 - Ira G. Leedy, 53, Cerro Gordo, was found dead in his parked car north of here yesterday with a bullet through his head and a fractured skull. Leedy is believed to have been the victim of bandits who killed him elsewhere and drove the car to the spot where it was found.

Leedy, who owned a confectionery in Springfield, left his store early yesterday with a large sum of money and started for his home. When found by a farmer, the slain man's pockets had been turned inside out and no money was found except six cents. A revolver was found under the dead man's body with four fired cartridges in it. According to officials Leedy had been dead for nearly ten hours before this body was found in the car which had left the road and run into a ditch.

Richard F. Leedy Sr., 91, Woodbury Family Doctor

January 13, 1995 - By S. Joseph Hagenmayer, INQUIRER CORRESPONDENT

Richard F. Leedy Sr., 91, who practiced family medicine from an office at 38 Newton Ave. in Woodbury for half a century before retiring in 1989, died Tuesday at Resthaven Nursing and Convalescent Center in York, Pa. He had resided in Briney Breezes, Fla., since 1992.

Dr. Leedy was born in Youngstown, Ohio. He graduated from George Williams

College in Chicago and then attended New York University for two years before enrolling in the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine, from which he graduated in 1933.

"When his older brother Rowland - the idol of his life - became ill and died at age 26, that probably stimulated him to choose a medical career," said his son, Dr. W. Rowland Leedy.

Dr. Leedy worked his way through Philadelphia Osteopathic by working at the city-supported Elliot House for wayward youths.

After graduating, he established offices in Woodbury and Woodstown from 1933 until 1939, when he purchased a practice and home at 38 Newton Ave. in Woodbury.

"He continued practicing well into his 80s and was that old-type family doctor - very caring, dedicated and thoughtful about his patients," said James G. Kehler Jr., a fellow Woodbury physician and longtime friend.

"They don't turn out doctors like that anymore."

In 1966, Dr. Leedy was named Physician of the Year by the New Jersey Association of Osteopathic Physicians.

Widely known as an expert in the treatment of lower back pain through an injection method known as sclerotherapy, Dr. Leedy in 1991 received the Earl Gedney Award for outstanding service to the American Academy of Sclerotherapy. He was a lifetime member of the American Osteopathic Physicians Association and the New Jersey Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons.

"He totally and thoroughly lived his work," said his son. "Even after retiring he continued to talk about medicine and techniques."
